

THE WEATHER Fair tonight and tomorrow; warmer
Saturday

The La Crosse Tribune

Our sworn circulation of 6,300 is verified under oath by a Famous Actuary

VOLUME V NUMBER 294 LA CROSSE WISCONSIN, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1907. PRICE TWO CENTS

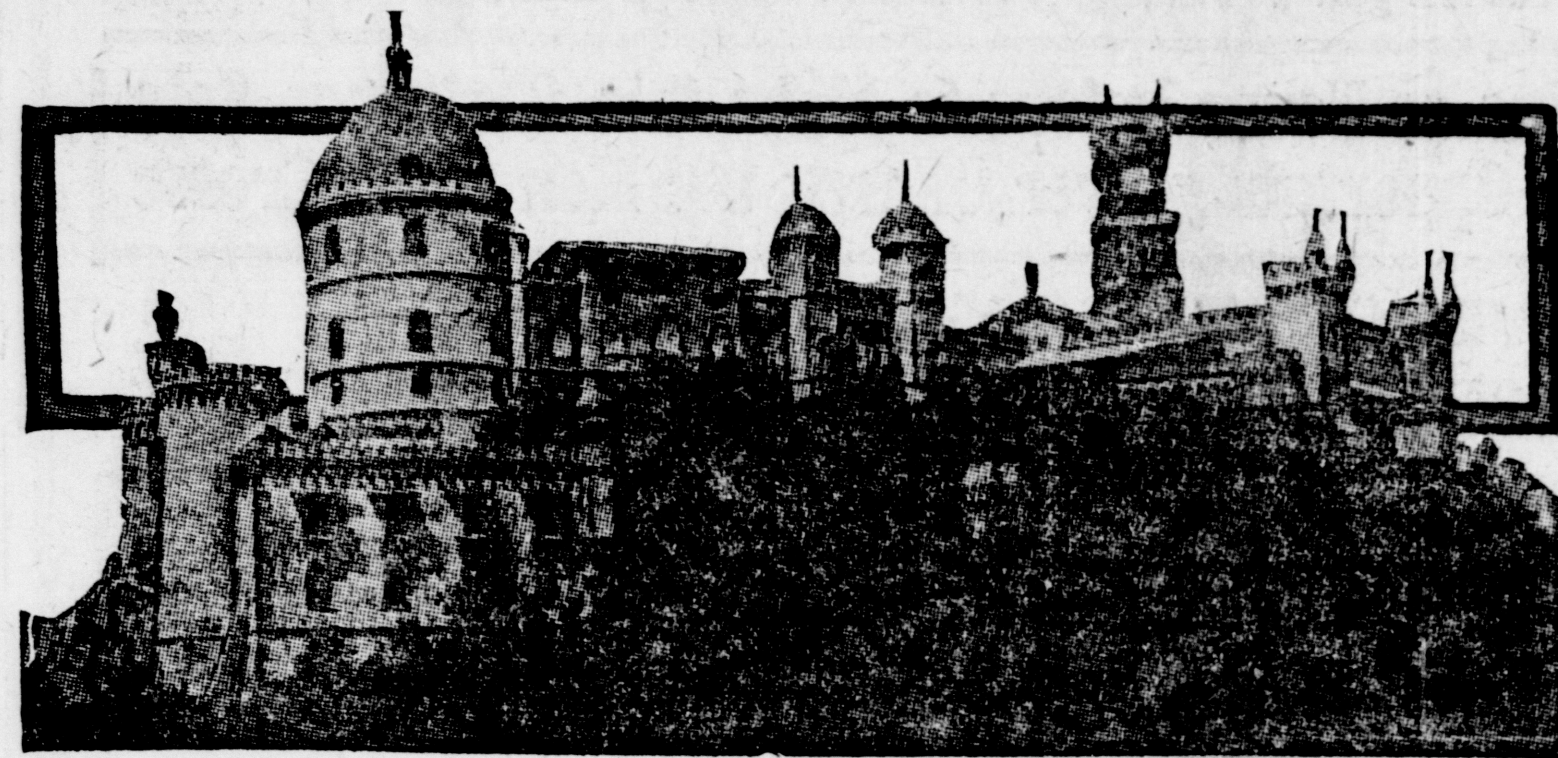

PORTUGAL SCENE OF POLITICAL CRISIS THAT MAY END IN A REVOLUTION AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A REPUBLIC

THE DICTATORIAL MINISTER IS CAUSE

CARLOS BANISHED DON FOR OP-POSING SENOR FRANCO STORY OF NATION IS FITFUL
Other Discontents and Revolutionary Movements Have Disturbed
Portuguese Monarchs

LISBON, Portugal, Nov. 29.—A serious crisis impends Portugal. This city, the national capital, is now practically under martial law. There is every indication that the anti-dynastic is growing. The censorship over telegraphic dispatches is strict and the postoffice officials refuse to accept letters which do not carry the address of the senders on the envelopes. In view of this condition it is difficult to inform the world of the exact conditions, but they are serious. The king of Portugal, Carlos I., has banished the Crown Prince Luiz to Villa Vicosa, a royal residence in an isolated part of Portugal, 100 miles from Lisbon. This step was taken in consequence of the crown prince remonstrating with his father against the dictatorial regime carried on by Senor Franco, the prime minister, with the king's assent and support. The crown prince, whose antagonism to the dictatorship was well known, represented to his father the inadvisability of continuing the present method of government, which, he said, is turning Portugal into a hotbed of republicans and anarchists and which might end in the overthrow of the monarchy. Carlos, greatly incensed, ordered the crown prince into what is practically exile from the capital.

The king's action added fuel to the flames which are already burning.

CASTLE DU PENA, ROYAL SUMMER PALACE OF THE KING AND QUEEN OF PORTUGAL.

as this before, but nothing has ever materialized.

The King.
King Carlos, the first, ascended the throne in 1889. He married in 1886 Marie Amelie, daughter of Duc D'Orleans. Their one son, Luiz

DOM CARLOS, THE FIRST KING OF PORTUGAL.

Phillipe, is the present heir and is still a beardless youth. The constitution of the government in Portugal dates back to the charter granted by Pedro, the fourth, in 1829, which has been altered and liberalized by later acts of the assembly. The king, as executive, has a responsible cabinet of seven members. Legislative authority is vested in the cortes general, composed of a house of peers and a house of commons, the latter only being elective. Portugal was formerly a part of Spain until 1640, when revolt from Spanish rule resulted in the crowning of the legitimate heir, the Duke Braganza. Following that for a quarter of a century a struggle, finally successful, for independence followed. In 1853 the crown passed to Pedro, the fifth, the first representative of the house of Braganza-Coburg, which still holds supreme authority in the person of Don Carlos.

Just 100 Years Ago.
Just 100 years ago today the royalty of Portugal hurriedly moved bag and baggage from Lisbon across the ocean to Brazil and set up court in Rio de Janeiro.

Seldom has such a spectacle occurred. The streets were crowded with

AMELIE, DAUGHTER OF PHILIPPE DUC D'ORLEANS, AND QUEEN OF PORTUGAL.

hurrying wagons and people, all bent upon reaching the fleet of 36 war vessels and merchantmen in order that by them they might be trans-

(Continued on Page Ten.)

DEFENSE SPRINGS ANOTHER SURPRISE

PASTOR SWEARS MRS. BRADLEY SANE, WOULD NOT SHOOT

SAYS SHE TOLD HIM SO

But State's Alienists Swear Defendant Was Sane and Knew Right From Wrong.

The taking of evidence in the Bradley case was concluded today.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 29.—What was probably the final surprise by the defense in the Bradley case was sprung this morning when in its rebuttal it introduced Rev. David Utter, pastor of the Unitarian church at Denver, who had officiated at the baptism of the older of Mrs. Bradley's two children, Arthur.

Rev. Utter had come all the way to Washington to answer a few questions. He testified that he had been the defendant's pastor for years and told how he had urged her to leave Brown. He added:

"Mrs. Bradley told me that when Brown was brought to the point of a gun and told he must he would marry her.

"You can't bluff Brown," I said," related the pastor, "and I asked her, 'Suppose he called your bluff, would you shoot?' She said 'No.'"

Prior to the calling of Rev. Utter Edward McLean, a reporter, took the stand and said he regarded the defendant as sane. He had met her and talked with her in his professional capacity.

Dr. Edward Brush, of Baltimore, an alienist or the prosecution, testified that the defendant had showed a high degree of intelligence when on the witness stand. Answering the hypothetical question, he said:

"I see no reason for assuming that this person is anything but sane. She knew right from wrong and was able to control her actions."

Brush's testimony was the biggest obstacle thrown in the way of the defense. The defendant showed signs of nervousness as the structure built by her lawyers was attacked from every angle.

Evidence All In.

After the defendant had taken the stand for a few minor questions this afternoon, the defense closed the evidence in rebuttal, this concluding the taking of evidence on both sides.

HAS NOT HEARD OF FLAG PROTEST

Weather Observer E. C. Thompson this afternoon said that he had not heard of the protest which had been made by citizens on account of the removal of the weather flags from the federal building and believed that the flags were noticed much more on the new building than they ever were before.

He says that in case the protest was upheld that he would have to take the matter up with the postoffice to see who could be secured to put up the flags.

"At the new place," he said, "people can see the flags from the cars and I see them gazing at the signals at all times of the day."

HONORS MAN WHO LEFT HIM FORTUNE

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 29.—W. J. Bryan arrived here today for a three days' stay in Connecticut to make speeches. He dedicated the Philo S. Bennett fountain today. Bennett willded Bryan the much discussed $25,000.

"HUGHES & DENEEN" IS LATTER'S PLAN

FIGHT ON ILLINOIS PRIMARY TO HAVE THIS MEANING

A CANNON-DENEEN CONFLICT

Uncle Joe's Boom Has Home Foe and Governor Would Be Hughes' Running Mate

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Gov. Deneen is dicker with Governor Hughes of New York to deliver the Illinois presidential delegation to Hughes if Deneen can be his running mate, according to a story printed here today in which it is stated that Deneen is opposing the Cannon boom. For that reason it is said, he is insisting on a primary law containing a provision for a popular vote on presidential candidates through the selection of delegates to the national convention.

Such a provision was contained in the Oglesby act, which Cannon has used his influence to defeat. It was claimed yesterday that the bill was dead, but the administration forces sprung a sensation last evening by raising a new issue. This issue is based on the fact that the conference committee report was adopted by a vote of 41 to 4 in the senate, and by a vote of 83 to 34 in the house. It was given a 2-thirds vote in the upper branch and six more than a constitutional majority in the lower, although not a two-thirds vote.

GOV. CHARLES S. DENEEN.

Illinois Executive Wants to Second Hughes on Republican Ticket.

Speaker Shurtzoff has ruled that the report, failing to receive 102 votes in the house, was not adopted, and that the bill was not passed because of this failure.

Gov. Deneen and his friends now contend the speaker's ruling is in error, that only 77 votes were needed, that the report in securing 83 votes was adopted, and that the legislature has given the state a direct primary law.

GATEMAN SENDS A CAR LOAD OF FOLK TO SUDDEN DEATH

SIGNALS TROLLEY TO CROSS THE TRACK AS FREIGHT STRIKES

FIVE DEAD AND EIGHT HURT

Gateman and Conductor Arrested on Charge of Criminal Negligence in Causing Wreck

WATERBURY, Conn., Nov. 29.—In a wreck due to carelessness, it is charged five persons, three of them women, lost their lives here this morning and eight more were injured, some seriously and perhaps fatally.

There were thirteen passengers in a double trucked trolley that attempted to cross the tracks of the Highland railroad, enroute to Hartford. The gateman at the crossing gave the signal to go ahead, failing to see the on-rushing train which was in plain sight. In a moment the crash came. The car was hurled bodily from the tracks and fell in a mass of debris, crushed like an egg shell. Not a passenger escaped injury, and the dead were so mangled as to make immediate identification impossible.

Both the motorman and conductor saved themselves from injury. The former, responding to the flagman's signal, had thrown on the full current, dashing swiftly to the impact. On seeing the danger too late to avert it, he threw the brakes and sought to check the car.

The gateman and the conductor, both charged with responsibility by the rules for seeing that the track was clear, were arrested on charges of criminal negligence.

REUTER CONCERT NOT TO BE HELD TONIGHT; DATE NOW DEC. 10TH

.....
The Jacob-Reuter concert that was to have been held this evening has been postponed until Dec. 10. This is expected to be the leading musical entertainment of the year, and owing to the fact that tickets are to be sold at the popular price of only 50 cents, a great attendance is expected in consideration of Prof. Reuter's notable contribution to the musical talent of La Crosse.

OVERCHARGE LAW IS NOT RETROACTIVE AND COMPLAINTS ARE BAD

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—The state railroad commission today decided that the law passed in the last session of the legislature permitting a shipper to recover through the commission for an overcharge by a railroad company is not retroactive and that the several complaints before the body for violations made before the law took effect must be dismissed.

OLD HOME OF THE BEAVER BURNS TODAY

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 29.—Unconfirmed reports say that Cody, Wyoming, has been wiped out by a fire which is still burning. The destruction is said to be complete. The town had a population of about 800, and was founded by William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill). He is the head of a syndicate which practically own the town.

In an interview today Dr. George E. Powell said that his brother, the late Mayor Frank Powell, had owned an interest in the Cody syndicate, which beside owning most of the town of Cody held large tracts of timber and mining lands in the vicinity. He did not know whether Mrs. Powell had retained any of this interest, but understood that Cody himself had disposed of much of his interest. Dr. W. D. Thomas of this city, who recently visited Cody, is quoted as saying that the main building of the city is an 80-room hotel, the "Irma," named after Mr. Cody's daughter, which is regarded in the west as one of the finest hotels in the country. Mrs. Frank Powell has left Cody, and is now living in Los Angeles.

GOV'T WOULD WREST MILLIONS OF WALSH

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—The government today laid the foundation for a suit to be brought in an effort to dispossess Banker Walsh of his present fortune of twenty million which it is supposed he realized on investments made with his bank's funds.

NOTABLES ENLIVEN FEAST WITH GRACEFUL SPEECH

RT. REV. BISHOP JAMES SCHWEBACH.

La Crosse prelate who told interesting story of his recent visit to His Holiness, Pope Pius X., at banquet given by St. Joseph congregation, in Woodman hall last evening.

NEW FACES IN THE SENATE NUMBER 15

UNUSUAL INFUX IN CONSERVATIVE BRANCH THIS YEAR

DEATH AND RESIGNATION FELT

These Add to the Changes Brought About by the Triumph of the Radical in Politics

Washington News Bureau of The La Crosse Tribune.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 29, 1907.
(By J. C. Welliver.)

Habitués of the senate and house galleries, those who make a practice of watching those two legislative bodies in action, and whose minds hark back to congresses past and gone, will find plenty of new faces and new characters to occupy their attention from next Monday on. The house will present marked changes in personnel. Not only will there be an unusual list of the newly elected but there will be a striking absence of some of the figures that have been well known in congress for years. In the house, however, one always expects change. In the senate, there is less shifting about but in this particular instance the absence of old and familiar figures will be noticeable.

Fifteen new senators will be sworn. This is a large number when it is considered that the terms of but thirty expire every two years. Spooner will be gone and so will those two gray-haired and deeply respected senators from Alabama, Morgan and Pettus. Senator Dubois of Idaho, Senator "Joe" Blackburn of Kentucky, and Senator Patterson of Colorado will be numbered with the missing. Also among the absentees will be Montana's conspicuous mining king, William A. Clark, who was reputed to be the wealthiest of the members of the millionaires' club in the senate. John F. Dryden of New Jersey, head of a powerful insurance company, is another who has been supplanted, and Millard of Nebraska is another.

Unique Characters Elected.
There will be no dearth of unique and picturesque characters among the fifteen new members. By common consent, the leader in the category of oddities is the new senator from Arkansas, Jeff Davis, who has displaced James H. Berry, for eighteen years in the upper house of congress. The mention of Jeff Davis at once suggests the former head of the confederacy and the new Arkansas senator is a nephew of that historic personage. He is as unlike his

ST. JOSEPH BANQUET IS SPLENDID EVENT

ONE OF THE RECORD BREAKING FEASTS OF THANKS

RT. REV. BISHOP SPEAKS

Noted La Crosse Prelate Tells of His Recent Visit to the Presence of Pope Pius X.

The banquet given last evening in Woodman hall by the congregation of the St. Joseph's cathedral in honor of the tenth anniversary of the dedication of their parochial school and the wiping out, by this banquet, of the last debts due on the school, was one of the memorable banquets in the city's history.

Music.
From behind a bank of foliage and ferns in the balcony, the music of Kreutz's orchestra was wafted over the five long tables, which were decorated with astors and were occupied to their fullest extent by the four hundred guests.

The pretty decorations in the hall and the delicate electrical effects added much brilliancy to the scene. The musical program interspersed throughout the menu was as follows:

Grand March Wagner
Overture—Raymond Thomas
Waltz—Artist's Dream Vollstedt
Gavotte—London Day
Selection—Wonderland Herbert
Salon Mazurka—Squirrel. Ellenberg Waltz—Thousand and One Nights Strauss Caprice Poetic—Showers of Smiles Bailey
The menu, prepared by Chef Neukom, and served by about fifty

(Continued on Page Four.)

WEATHER FORECAST

Coolest, 20; warmest, 42; wind, 4 miles; rainfall, 0.

The coldest weather recorded in 24 hours, was at Devils Lake, where the thermometer touched zero. It registered 8 above at Huron and 6 above at Moorehead and Prince Albert.

Weather forecasts today:
Wisconsin—Generally fair tonight and Saturday; slowly rising temperature.

Minnesota—Generally fair to and Saturday; warmer tonight, portion Saturday.

(Continued on page 5.)

Scotch Woolen Mills Co. Editorial

$5 Trousers or Fancy Vest Absolutely free with every order for Suit or Overcoat

Do you realize what an offer like this means, coming just at the very time when you need a winter suit or overcoat?

Semi-annually, prior to inventory, we have made a practice of giving a similar inducement in order to clean up stocks.

But, despite the tremendous business we are doing, we have, at the suggestion of many of our old customers, put on this stunt several weeks earlier than usual.

Christmas is close at hand and the tendency is to give useful presents—presents that show the practical good sense of the donor.

There is no more practical gift than an order on us for a suit or overcoat.

It is to foster this spirit of sensible gift giving that we have this year decided to make this extraordinary offer of a $5 pair of Trousers or Fancy Vest free with every order for a suit or overcoat at least three weeks earlier than usual.

Whether you wish to remember some friend by an order on us for a suit or overcoat (with an extra pair of pants or fancy vest free), or are in need of a suit or overcoat yourself, don't let a chance like this slip by you.

Come in and get samples. You get a suit or overcoat made to your individual measure for less than you'll pay for a ready-made guessfit, and an extra pair of $5 trousers or fancy vest at no cost whatever.

With every order we incorporate our warrant of "Satisfaction or No Pay."

If you know of a squarer offer than this we'd like to get put next.

Yours truly,

SCOTCH WOOLEN MILLS CO.
JOS. W. MOYLES, MGR.

No MONEY STRINGENCY HERE $5 TROUSERS OR FANCY VEST MADE TO ORDER FREE

Commencing on Saturday and continuing until further notice, with every suit or overcoat ordered from us you get absolutely free an extra pair of trousers or a fancy vest made to your individual measure. This is the biggest clothes bargain opportunity ever offered the men of La Crosse, coming right as it does when you need your winter outfit worst. We make a practice of offering a special inducement to clean up stocks prior to our semi-annual inventory, but this year we're doing it several weeks earlier than usual.

We Have Made Preparations as Never Before to Make this Christmas Sale the Greatest Money-Saving Opportunity Ever Offered the Men of La Crosse

SUIT OR OVERCOAT MADE TO ORDER WITH CHOICE OF $5 TROUSERS OR FANCY VEST ABSOLUTELY FREE

READ THIS

There will be no skipping of workmanship to "even up" for the extra garments. We'll fit you as perfectly in them and tailor as conscientiously as in the principal order.

This offer applies only to orders left on and after Saturday, November 20, but cannot be applied to orders booked prior to that date whether in process of construction or ready for delivery. This is our only condition—and a perfectly fair one.

Our prices are alike to everyone and unchangeable. No reduction can be made if you do not desire the additional garments. Thus you really get "something for nothing"—of downright value.

$15

OTHERS AT $17.50, $20 AND $22.50

READ THIS

No goods reserved or exempted. Everything—staple blacks and blues as well as novelties—entitled to the extra or gratis trousers or vest.

We wish to emphasize that the values offered in gratis trousers are better than ever before. None are worth less than $4 a pair and nearly all are $5 values—some higher—as we sell them.

If you choose a fancy vest you can select from over 100 beautiful patterns worth from $3.50 to $5.00.

The Christmas gift-thought in tailoring is everywhere—practical, not necessarily expensive; never unwelcome; and the desirable preliminary secrecy very often quite possible. Employer wishing to do something nice for clerk, wife for husband, sister for brother, children for father, friend for friend, you might think for a long time before hitting upon anything more desirable for Christmas remembrance than an order upon us for a Suit or Overcoat. We have the measure of every man that ever dealt here.

Don't be a ready-made man with an offer like this looking at you. There's no ready-made guess-fit store in the country dare make an offer like this—and if they did, what would you get? Clothes built on a dummy in the hope that you're a big enough dummy to be bluffed into taking them. You don't adjust yourself to our clothes; we adjust the clothes to you. It's the difference between the imitation and the real thing.

This offer, a $5 pair of trousers or fancy imported vest, for absolutely nothing will not last long, so don't delay. Get your order in right away for a suit or overcoat and secure a $5 pair of TROUSERS OR FANCY VEST FREE.

Scotch Woolen Mills Co.
BIG TAILORS

324 Main Street.

La Crosse, Wis.

Jos. W. Moyles, Mgr.

SPORTING NEWS

LA CROSSE LOSES THE CHAMPIONSHIP

SPARTA'S KNOWLEDGE OF NEW RULES DOES THE TRICK

LOCALS FOUGHT HARD GAME

Really Deserved to Win in Several Instances, but Were Unfortunate in Many Plays

Failure of successful manipulation of the forward pass, seeming lack of strength of interference at critical moments and a fluke move which permitted a Spartan to run half the length of the field for a touchdown with little or no opposition cost La Crosse the state high school football championship yesterday afternoon by a score of 4 to 6, before the largest crowd which ever assembled at League park.

Most of the game was played on Sparta's territory and during the first half La Crosse literally played the visitors off their feet. Fumbles and apparent misunderstanding in the second half gave Sparta a goal, and though La Crosse had the ball with in Sparta's five yard line twice in the last few minutes of play, it was lost on a fumble and carried away.

It was the opinion of nearly everyone who saw the game that La Crosse's sturdy team deserved the victory, but a loss in penalties of 90 yards on the little fine points which the boys did not know to be subject to penalty and other unfortunate developments worked against them. One Spartan tackled a La Crosse player about the neck, but was not touched.

Erhard's Thousands Inspiring.
Light, the sound, is more in football than cheering, shrieking multitude at the big games. Yesterday's was La Crosse's big game and the great crowds of gayly dressed women and girls, the flying colors of the schools, the ringing yells and the hoarse roars of approval stirred the blood till it leaped in the veins of even a poor baseball fan. Rival bands marching the field, the pageant of brilliant colors and smile-wreathed faces which swept behind the music, 'midst singing and lusty shouting let no cold heart stay so.

Old men threw their hats and screamed their delight, and the younger ones danced their approval as the teams swept back and forth.

And, winning, when the paean rose like the roar of thunder from the Spartan side of the grandstand, and when a thoughtful pair of Spartans rushed onto the field with a banner "State Champions," and when, as if by magic, there appeared in every Spartan's hat a red placard, "Cham-peens, Ha Ha!" La Crosse's enthusiasm for the victors was almost as pronounced as their own.

Thanksgiving of 1907 will go down in football annals as one of the greatest days for athletics in the La Crosse high school, and next year La Crosse enthusiasts promise to have the victorious team, for the cash receipts yesterday will put the high school athletic association on its feet.

A Clean Victory.
Sparta won, and it was a clean victory. They won the game through better knowledge of this year's football tactics, having mastered the forward pass and used it with the success that has brought them victory in every game played this season. Sparta clearly outplayed La Crosse in the new football as was shown during the second half of yesterday's contest. Thayer, Sparta's right end, played the entire game for his team. He was a consistent ground gainer and through his tackling saved the Sparta goal many times during the game. Jefferson, quarter back, also played an exceptionally strong game for his team, while Byrne, Tourtellotte and Fowler were the star game for the local team and their playing showed them to be star players.

On straight football La Crosse outplayed their opponents during the entire game, but when it came to the forward passes La Crosse was up in the air, and could not handle them. Several times the forward pass was tried by La Crosse, but each time the ball went wild and they were penalized.

La Crosse's Only Score.
La Crosse made the first and only score on their side during the first five minutes of play when a fumble by Sparta gave La Crosse the ball on the 25 yard line. Line bucks netted 5 yards and Joe Fowler dropped back to the 25 yard line and through a pretty drop kick scored 4 points for the La Crosse team.

Sparta's Only Score.
Sparta made their only score during the beginning of the second half when Jefferson caught Dahlgren's punt in the center of the field and aided by splendid interference ran the field for a touchdown and kicked goal.

Sparta Wins Toss.
At 3:30 Captain Dahlgren of the local team and Captain Boisen of Sparta met and after wishing luck to each other a coin was tossed. Boisen winning the toss and choosing to defend the west goal.

The Ground Gaining.
Captain Dahlgren kicked off for La Crosse to Boisen who returned the ball 5 yards. McDonald hit center, but La Crosse held. Boisen made 2 yards over tackle and Thayer dropped back for a punt. The ball went out of bounds and went to La Crosse in the center of the field. Fowler went through center for 2 yards and Jungbluth made it 5 more on a tackle play. On the next play Dahlgren punted to the 20 yard line to Jefferson who fumbled the ball and Tourtellotte recovered it. Fowler was again sent through center for 2 yards and Jack Dahlgren netted 3 more over tackle. Joe Fowler dropped back to the 23 yard line, and booted the ball square over the goal posts, scoring La Crosse's four points after five minutes of play.

First Down.
Sparta kicked off to Byrne who returned it 15 yards to Dahlgren son who was downed in his tracks by Shaw. Sparta punted to Fowler who returned it 5 yards. J. Dahlgren on a straight buck netted 3 yards. Jungbluth made it 3 more over tackle and Tourtellotte was sent over for first down. Dahlgren on a tackle over tackle play made 5 yards and a forward pass was tried, but the ball went wild and La Crosse was penalized 15 yards. Dahlgren punted to Jefferson on the 5 yard line, and Sparta punted to the center of the field to Fowler, who returned it 10 yards before being downed. Jungbluth went through the line for 5 yards. Fowler netted 3 more over center and on the next play Sparta held and took the ball.

Penalized 30 Yards.
Jackson attempted to go over center, but was thrown for a loss of 4 yards by Tourtellotte and on the next play Sparta fumbled and Byrne got the ball. La Crosse on two attempts at forward passes was penalized 30 yards and Dahlgren punted 50 yards to Jefferson who was thrown for a loss of 2 yards. Sparta failed at a try at the line and was forced to punt. Byrne getting the ball, La Crosse fumbled on the first play and the ball went to Sparta on the La Crosse 40 yard line.

Sparta made 3 yards through the line and on the next play La Crosse held and Jefferson dropped back for a place kick, but the ball went wild and fell short. Fowler recovering it and returning it 10 yards. Dahlgren punted 45 yards to Jefferson, who was downed in his tracks by Shaw and Tourtellotte. Boisen went through the line for 5 yards, Jackson netted 2 more and Jackson went over tackle for first down. On the next two plays Sparta was thrown for a loss and Thayer punted to Byrne who returned it 10 yards.

Shaw's Leg Hurt.
Tourtellotte went through center for 2 yards and lost the ball, Jefferson recovering it. On an attempted around the end play he was thrown for a loss of 2 yards and Thayer punted to Fowler. Dahlgren returned the punt, but it went beyond the goal and Thayer punted out from the 35 yard line to Dahlgren, who returned it 5 yards. Dahlgren went over tackle for 3 yards and punted to Boisen. La Crosse held on the first down and in Shaw's leg was injured. Dickens was sent in at end. La Crosse held and Thayer punted to Fowler. Byrne on a long end run netted 10 yards, but was injured, and time was taken out, but he resumed the play. Dahlgren punted to Boisen who returned it 3 yards and on the next play punted to Byrne, who carried it back 20 yards. Fowler went around end for 8 yards, who time was called for the first half. Score, La Crosse 4, Sparta 0.

The Second Half.
The second half opened with Sparta kicking off to Byrne who returned it 15 yards. Dahlgren punted to the center of the field to Jefferson and aided by excellent interference went the entire field for a touchdown and kicked goal, scoring. La Crosse's tackles were taken off guard.

La Crosse kicked off to Hatch, who returned it 10 yards. An end run netted them 5 yards and a forward pass made it first down. Thayer went around end for 5 yards, and a forward pass netted 5 more. La Crosse then settled down and held and Thayer punted, but a fumble gave Sparta the ball on the 40 yard line. La Crosse held and Jefferson tried for a drop kick, but the ball went wide and Dahlgren punted out from the 35 yard line to the center of the field. Sparta on two attempts netted 5 yards and punted to Fowler who returned it 15 yards. A forward pass failed and Dahlgren punted to Jefferson. A fumble gave the ball to La Crosse and a forward pass netted 2 yards. Byrne on an end run brought the ball to the 10 yard line but Sparta held for downs and punted out of danger. Fowler returned it to the 35 yard line.

Serious Penalties.
A forward pass was tried and La Crosse was penalized 15 yards. Dahlgren punted and Thayer blocked the kick. Tourtellotte recovering it, but La Crosse was again penalized 15 yards for holding. Dahlgren punted and on a fumble Larson who took Dahlgren's place recovered the ball. A short kick was tried but Sparta got the ball. La Crosse held, and Sparta was forced to punt. Byrne getting the ball. Jungbluth went through the line for 5 yards and on the next play Byrne brought the ball to the 15 yard line. Sparta held for two downs and Fowler dropped back for a place kick, but the throw was wild and he went through the line, making it first down on the 8 yard line. On the next play La Crosse fumbled the ball and Sparta fell on it and immediately punted it out of danger. After two plays that netted 8 yards for La Crosse time was called, with the ball in La Crosse's possession on the Sparta 35 yard line. Final score—Sparta 6, La Crosse 4.

The line-up for the game was:
La Crosse. Sparta.
W. Muellerc. Walters
Brindleyf. g. Evans
Stavruml. g. Smith
Jungblutht. Johnson
A. Dahlgrenl. t. Middelstaedt
(Capt.)
Shaw, Dickens, r. e. Hatch
N. Tourtellotte, l. e. Thayer
Byrneq. Jefferson
J. Dahlgrenr. b. Boisen
Larsont. McDonald
W. Tourtellotte, f. b. Jackson
Fowlerl. h. b. Jackson
Time of halves—25 and 25 minutes.
Attendance—3,500.
Touchdowns—Jefferson.
Goals from touchdowns—Jefferson.
Goals from field—Fowler.
Umpire—A. Lerum, University of Wisconsin.
Referee—G. Zeisler (La Crosse).
Field Judge—W. W. Card (Sparta).
Head Linesman—Peter Riley (La Crosse).
Linesmen—L. Austin (Sparta); Tarbox (La Crosse).

FITZSIMMONS TO START SANATORIUM

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 29. — "Lanky Bob" Fitzsimmons is to become a rival of Prof. "Billy" Madison of El Paso Root fame. That is the simple matter of fact statement made by Bob, and Billy Muldoon will have to look to his laurels, for Fitzsimmons believes that these strenuous sanatoriums will be all the rage soon, and he intends to "get in on the ground floor" early and "cop a lot of easy money" in his Dunelm, N. J., establishment. Fitz says it will beat the show business, so far as he is concerned, all hollow.

QUAKERS PLAY A WONDERFUL GAME

CORNELL HAS LITTLE CHANCE WITH PENNSYLVANIA

PENNSY SUFFERS PENALTIES

Plays a Ring Around Their Opponents in the First Half—Loses
Brace in Second Struggle

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 29.—History repeated itself on Franklin field, Pennsylvania again winning the annual football game with Cornell, the score this year being 12 to 4. It was Pennsylvania's thirteenth victory in fifteen games played with the Ithacans, the New York state team having won one contest and tied another. The game was finely played, bringing out many spectacular features which were greatly enjoyed by the nearly 20,000 people who filled the big stands.

Cornell fully expected to win. The team had a good season record, the men were trained to the hour, and it was expected that Pennsylvania, which had been a little erratic this year, would not be able to withstand the aggressive work of the Ithacans. So full of confidence was Cornell that her supporters turned the tide of betting in her favor.

But the teams were not on the field five minutes before it was seen that Pennsylvania, barring accidents and flukes, was likely to win. She went to Cornell hammer and tongs from the jump and all during the first half the play was close to Cornell's goal.

Touchdowns Not Allowed.
The score of the first half, 6 to 0, does not indicate Pennsylvania's strength in that period. Twice the Quakers carried the ball over the Cornell line by hard work, only to have the touchdowns disallowed because of holding. Once they lost the ball two feet from the goal on downs, and another time when the ball was only two yards from a score they were again penalized for holding. In this half the Quakers were penalized seventy-five yards and held Cornell to one first down. Pennsylvania clearly outplayed Cornell in this half and yet, owing to her holding proclivities, was able to make but one touchdown.

Only One "BROMO QUININE" That is LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE. Look for the signature of E. W. GROVE. Used the World over to Cure a Cold in One Day. 25c.

THANKSGIVING GAMES

East.
Pennsylvania 12, Cornell 4.
Forham 35, Holy Cross 0.
Georgetown 0, George Washington 0.
Western Penn 6, Penn State 0.
Lehigh 21, Carnegie Tech. 0.
Gettysburg 6, Franklin and Marshall 0.
Lafayette 31, Dickinson 0.
Georgia 6, Auburn 0.
Clemson 6, Georgia Tech. 5.
State.
Sparta 6, La Crosse 4.
Waukesha 20, Lake Mills 12.
Wayland 8, Sacred Heart 5.
Bau Claire 11, Hamline 6.
Delavan 12, Racine 5.
Rockford 29, Evansville 16.
Janesville 7, Alumni 5.
eKnosha 16, Starbuck 0.
Horicon 27, Randolph 0.
East Green Bay 11, West Green Bay 0.
Fort Ttkinson 15, Kaukauna 0.

West.
Notre Dame 21, St. Vincents 12.
Creighton 9, Haskell 6.
Ames 13, Drake 8.
Washburn 12, Oklahoma 0.
Vanderbilt 17, Shewanee 12.
St. Louis 34, Nebraska 0.
Kansas 4, Missouri 0.
Marietta 63, Ohio 0.
Guthrie 42, Otse Indians 0.
Ohio State 16, Ohio Wesleyans 0.
Utah 13, Colorado College 10.
Denver School of Mines 5, Colorado 4.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of water after every 3 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am as well as usual. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity."

Cascarets Best For The Bowels
CANDY CATHARTIC
THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Please! Palatable, Pleasant Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sickens, Weakens or Grips. 10c. 25c. 50c. Every Genuine tablet stamped C.C.C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back.
Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or N.Y. 60c
ANNUAL SALE, TEN MILLION BOXES

VINOL

for Run Down-Overworked people. Chronic Cough and Colds. Elderly People. Delicate Children. Lung Trouble. Weak and Tired out People. Remember We guarantee it and if it fails to do what we say, Your Money will be refunded as cheerfully as we took it. Get it at

HOESCHLER'S
Vinol Agency.

THE LA CROSSE TRIBUNE

Published Every Afternoon Except Sunday, at 201-203 South Fifth St., La Crosse, Wis.

A Newspaper For The People

Official Newspaper For La Crosse County.

A. M. Brayton F. H. Burgess W. V. Kipper
Editor & Pub. Business Mgr. City Editor

Daily by Carrier $6.00 per year
Daily by Mail $8.00 per year

Entered as Second-class Matter June 22, 1904, at the Postoffice at La Crosse, Wis., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

The Tribune is a member of the Lee Newspaper Syndicate.

Both Phones: Business Office 328-1
Editorial Dept. 328-2

Special Representatives: Payne & Young,
Chicago, 948 Marquette Building; La Crosse &
Maxwell, 140 Nassau Street, New York City.

Circulation Guarantee

THE LA CROSSE TRIBUNE

1907

THE LA CROSSE TRIBUNE.

Sworn Detailed Circulation for the Month of October, 1907.

1-Tues	5,650	17-Thurs	6,025
2-Wed	5,650	18-Fri	6,025
3-Thurs	5,650	19-Sat	6,050
4-Fri	5,700	20-Sunday
5-Sat	5,700	21-Mon	6,075
6-Sunday		22-Tues	6,100
7-Mon	5,750	23-Wed	6,115
8-Tues	5,775	24-Thurs	6,125
9-Wed	5,800	25-Fri	6,150
10-Thurs	5,825	26-Sat	6,215
11-Fri	5,850	27-Sunday
12-Sat	5,875	28-Mon	6,250
13-Sunday		29-Tues	6,275
14-Mon	5,900	30-Wed	6,300
15-Tues	5,950	31-Thurs	6,300
16-Wed	6,030

Total number of papers printed 161,080

Average each issue for October, 1907, 5,966

Extra Sample Copies not included.
I, Frank H. Burgess, business manager of the La Crosse Tribune, do solemnly swear that the actual number of copies of the paper named, printed and circulated during the month of October, 1907, was as above stated.

FRANK H. BURGESS.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this thirty-first day of October, 1907.
A. E. BLECKMAN,
Notary Public.

Our October Daily
Average was 5,966

THAT FOOTBALL GAME.

It was a shame to lose the game —strictly in the slang sense. But it was nothing to be ashamed of.

One cannot say for sure that the better team won, but one must say unqualifiedly that Sparta won fairly in a game that demonstrated both the courage and the good breeding of the young men comprising the two elevens.

Hat's off to Sparta, but we'll beat her next year!

The view of The Tribune's sporting editor is that Sparta won because she is more proficient in the "new" football. He is equally positive that in the "old" football the La Crosse boys excelled. However, football now is the "new" football.
There isn't any other kind. If the forward pass won the game for Sparta, it was good football, just the same.

We are going to play this game over many times this winter. We are not going to play it over to say to each other that La Crosse was "outlucked," or that Sparta's touchdown was made as much by a turn of fortune's wheel as by the efforts of the athletic young fellow who carried the ball over our goal line, or that La Crosse was so unfortunate as to be penalized when a goal was in sight, or that a goal was lost to the locals by a fumble on the eight yard line. There may be something in all this, but what we are going to play the game over for here in La Crosse is to analyze our deficiencies and to map out now how we can build up a team next year that, lucky or "outlucked," "new" football or "old" football, will beat Sparta and the rest of them and carry off the championship.

In conclusion The Tribune wants to say it was a splendid, plucky game all around, in the winning of which there was much honor and in the losing of which by so small a margin there was honor also.

This morning The Two who Remained were picking at some Charred Bones which the good housewife had placed before them. Said Mr.
Turkey: "Do you believe in cremation?"

"Well," said Mrs. Turkey, "it's conducive to good crops."

She giggled a little but the seed hen severely adjusted her comb, after which the obsequies proceeded with the decorum befitting so momentous a gastronomic event.

girls, maybe—would have given a carload of Thanksgiving dinners to have had a hand in it. That was home enthusiasm.

Tragic thoughts and hesitation
O'er the giblets in my soup—
It reflects the tribulation
Of an empty chicken coop.

Poor, deserted coop! I'm grieving,
So I slight today's repast.
And the burden of my sorrow?
Lord, how long will giblets last!

The news that New York banks are resuming cash payment is less impressive in La Crosse than in communities where transactions of that sort were suspended.

The discovery that one may talk over the telephone through one's ribs throws light on a feminine characteristic. Eve was made from a rib.

Last night, tho' Tommy dreamed a dream
Of goblins in his bed,
We have it on authority
'Twas goblins instead.

Some impertinent meddler has had the temerity to ask if that old Burlington schedule has been restored.

Well, how could they help winning, under the inspiration furnished by their dashing Joan of Arc?

La Crosse advertisers don't accept circulation by proclamation. They're from Missouri.

Real estate should boom in Sparta, now that the football team owns the town.

What's the use of a weather flag, if you have to look at it over the telephone?

QUIPS AND CRANKS AND WANTON WILES

Always the Same.
Professor (coming from his club holding up triumphantly his umbrella to his wife): "You see, my dear Alma, how stupid are all the anecdotes about our absent mindedness;
you see, I haven't forgotten my umbrella."

Mrs. Professor—"But, my dear, you didn't take your umbrella with you; you left it at home."—Frankfort Witzblitt.

Groundlessly Scared.
"Mr. Richly, I have a very great boon to ask of you."

"Now, look here, young man, before you go any further I'd like you to understand that I never lend money, and I don't know you well enough to lend you money if I did, and—"

"But I wish to marry your daughter!"

"Oh, why didn't you say so! Take her and be happy."—Houston Post.

The Cheese.
"The late Gen. Thomas H. Ruger," said a Stamford man, "was, like many army officers, an authority on good cooking, but he detested rank, high cheeses. At a dinner he said that a very rank cheese was once left at his headquarters to be called for, and after it had remained unclaimed two days he posted up this notice:

"If the cheese sent here addressed to Private Jones is not called for in two days it will be shot."—New York Tribune.

Good Scheme.
"Your wife needs exercise; she sits still too much."
"I'll get her a silk skirt."
"How will that help?"
"She'll keep moving so as to make it rustle."—Houston Post.

Her Vicious Dog.
"Why do you dislike him so?" asked Mrs. Gailey. "He's a member of your club, isn't he?"
"Yes, replied Gailey, "but he has no business to be."
"Why, what's the matter? Doesn't he drink?"—The Catholic Standard and Times.

Literally True.
"Yes; I frequently mind the baby."
"To mind," sneered the purist, "is to obey."
"That's what I do."—Washington Herald.

"See here, Grover Cleveland," he said, indignantly. "I want you to understand that you and your old books can go to thunder. You know very well that I don't read law. I practice entirely by ear."—New York Sun.

Cause for Complaint.
Manufacturer (to chairman of a committee of workmen): "What now? Did I not raise your wages last month? Am I not paying you more than anybody else in the trade?"

Chairman—Yes, sir. But what is the use of having more money without more time to spend it? We want another day a week off.—Answers.

What's Geography Good For?
This is from the philosophy of Mrs. Louisa Schmitt, who berated a teacher in the Nixon school for not promoting her daughter because the latter was deficient in geography:

"Teacher, you don't know it all,
I guess," said the irate Mrs. Schmitt.
"I wish it that my daughter gets through school so she gets a man.
Never mind about the geography;
just promote her without it."

"Why, my other daughter, she didn't know geography and she got a man. I don't know geography and I got a man. And you know all about geography and you ain't got any man at all. What is this geography good for? See that my daughter gets through school."—Inter Ocean.

Belle—Neil!
Neil—Yes, dear?
Belle—Is my complexion on straight?

SPOTLIGHTS

"The Flower of the Ranch."
The Askin-Singer company, which controls such successes as "The Umpire," and "The Time, The Place and the Girl," will tonight at the La Crosse theatre present Joseph E.
Howard and Mabel Barrison in a new western play with music, entitled
"The Flower of the Ranch." Howard has succeeded in writing more than a dozen wonderfully catchy airs, which are as big hits as his "Umpire" and "Time, Place and Girl" selections. The costuming of "The Flower of the Ranch" will be especially picturesque and handsome.

"The Man of the Hour."
The La Crosse theatre Tuesday,
Dec. 2, will offer to theatre goers
Wm. A. Brady and Jos. R. Grismer's production of "The Man of the Hour" from the pen of George Broadhurst, which comes here after

A Scene from Wm. A. Brady and Joseph Grismer's "The Man of the Hour," at the La Crosse Theatre
Tuesday Night.

a run of over one year at the Savoy theatre, New York city. According to all reports received in cities in which the play has been presented the consensus of opinion appears to be that it is a play of exceptional strength telling forcibly a powerful dramatic story. While Mr. Broadhurst has taken for his central theme the political situation as it exists in nearly every great city in the country where there are "machine" politics and "graft" he has also interwoven what is said to be a delightful love story.

Olga Nethersole.
On next Monday evening at the La Crosse theatre, Olga Nethersole, the noted English artist, will present Clyde Fitch's dramatization of Alfonse Daudet's great story, which was produced with such phenomenal success several years ago in northern cities and in Great Britain.
"Sapho." Miss Nethersole, owing to an unfortunate illness which developed after her triumphal acquittal by the jury in the famous New York "Sapho" case, was compelled to cut short her American engagements of this play. The present production will bring forth an entirely new scenic equipment with new costumes for the fancy ball. In Paris last June, Miss Nethersole played a forty-night engagement at the Sarah Bernhardt theatre, where she was supported by Frank Mills and her London company, the same appearing with her here.

OLGA NETHERSOLE

Faust.

Hall Caine says in substance that the stage is true to its mission its efforts for righteousness are almost incalculable.

As an allegorical educational production all intellectual minds concede Goethe's immortal Faust to be the best of all.
"Which is why we remark and our speech it is plain" that Louis Morrison, the distinguished actor, leading his own excellent company, will appear here at the La Crosse theatre on Sunday, Dec. 1, matinee and night, in a magnificent revival of this good old play.

WOMAN KILLS BEAR.

LADYSMITH, Wis., Nov. 29.—Mrs.
William Iles of this city has the distinction of being the first woman hunter to kill a bear in this county. She was hunting with her husband near the Hackett farm, on the Flambeau river, when they ran upon the big animal and Mrs. Iles dispatched it with shot from her rifle, severing the jugular vein.

FASHION HINTS

(By May Mantion.)

5828 Seven Gored Skirt, 22 to 32 waist

To Be Made With Habit Back or Inverted Plaits.

The plain gored skirt is always a graceful and becoming one and this season will have extended vogue. It is especially to be desired under the fashionable long coats and is altogether satisfactory and desirable. This one allows a choice of the habit back or inverted plaits and is adapted to all reasonable materials, both to the suits and the separate skirts, but as illustrated is made of plum colored cheviot stitched with beading silk.

The skirt is cut in seven gores that are shaped after the very latest style and is designed to be closed invisibly at the back, whether the plaits are used or are not.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 8 3/4 yards 27, 5 yards 44 or 52 inches wide when material has figure or nap; 6 1/2 yards 27, 3 3/4 yards 44 or 3 yards 52 inches wide when it has not.

The pattern 5828 is cut in sizes for a 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inch waist measure and will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage which insures more prompt delivery.)

THE NEW LINCOLN STATUE.

(Chicago Tribune.)

When the second Saint Gaudens statue of Abraham Lincoln shall be unveiled Chicago will find itself in a curious situation. It is unusual, to say the least, to have two statues of an individual by the same sculptor erected in one city. Under the terms of the will of John Crerar, the donor, the new statue is to be set up somewhere on the south side. In his first interpretation of Mr. Lincoln Saint Gaudens was so successful as to make his north side creation a masterpiece which added much to his fame. If the attempt to represent a different phase of the war president's character has been satisfactory in the same degree Chicago will have reason for just pride.

The figure in the new statue is seated. The central thought as the artist worked away was to represent the "aloneness" of his subject. It is an idea which has often found expression in books about Mr. Lincoln.
He seemed at times to dwell apart in the seclusion of his own thoughts.
To catch such an idea and make it enduring in bronze was worthy of a master artist. If the finished statue makes the one who looks upon it feel the isolation which Mr. Lincoln sometimes felt the triumph of art will be complete.

The great man is apt to be many sided. In the recent publication telling of the telegraph service during the civil war an impression is given of the genial nature of Mr. Lincoln which found happiness and contentment in mingling with others of his kind. Not long ago another writer portrayed "Abraham Lincoln, Master of Men," showing how he brought such widely different types as Seward and Stanton under the direction of his master mind. It is the manifestation of these various powers of life which have made the study of Lincoln so interesting.

STICKS TO THE MACHINE.

(Free Press.)

Illinois will not select delegates and presidential electors by primary election methods this time. The proposal to nominate electors by popular vote has little merit. It merely cumbers the ticket, which is a ways long enough. The presidential elector might be abolished without in any way changing the result of an election or the safety of the system of election by states. Nothing is gained by having a list of thirteen electors at the head of the ticket voted for president and vice-president, let us say, in Wisconsin, which is entitled to thirteen votes in the "electoral college." That is, thirteen is its proportion of the total number of votes for president and vice president, based on the total number of senators and representatives in congress from all of the states. Each state is entitled to one vote for each member of congress.

The choice of delegates by the people instead of by the political bosses is another matter. There is reason for regret that the Illinois legislature has refused to give the system a trial.

However, Wisconsin will point the way in this as it has many another real reform, and the other states, Illinois included, can learn from our experience.

Slumber holds the cireling land, Fills the moon's great drinking horn
Held in the Almighty's hand;
Sounds alone one brook, hill-born;
Harvest guards, a seraph band,
Wander, shining through the corn.
Martin Grels in Transatlantic Tales.

THE GIANT'S STRENGTH

BY BASIL KING

(Copyrighted by Harper & Bros.)

As the name crossed Wiltshire's mind he buried his face in his hands, and groaned. The life-long humiliation, against which manhood and pride had enabled him to erect some kind of barrier, swept over him now with the whole force of its bitter flood. He was the man so cursed with physical insignificance that no woman could love him for himself.
He had been wounded by the fact even when he had been half indifferent. He had noticed often enough that the proud beauties, who had let him see that they were willing to bear his name and wear his coronet, shrank from his personal contact.
But this was the crowning instance of all. Paula did love him—in a way. She trusted him with the secrets which, he believed, she would never confide to any one else on earth. She was ready to marry him, not out of ambition, nor from any worldly motive whatever. And yet, even she, as she came to him, held out despairing hands to a Roger Winship—a pauper—a nobody—a man who could give her no proud place in the world, nor, indeed, anything but himself.

In spite of his native simplicity, Wiltshire could not help feeling this last fact to add gall to his wormwood. It emphasized his condition of personal inferiority. No one could have greater advantages of position, wealth, and character; and yet, because he was short and ugly and dull-eyed, he could neither command love nor win it. The utmost he could hope for would be the sort of tempered affection which Paula gave—the affection of one who could look below the surface and honor him for what was hidden there.

Then as the first bitterness of his reflections passed away, there came the thought. Why not be content with what he could get? Since life offered him only half a loaf, was it not better to take it than to go hungry? It was out of the question for Paula to marry Roger Winship, in any circumstances in which she could be placed. Then why not make the best of the situation by marrying her himself? The conditions would not be ideal for any one concerned, but he would take care that they involved no actual misery. Of whatever suffering there might be to bear, he would accept the lion's share as his own. That would be better—anything would be better—than to give her up.

It was cold comfort, but he had no other. Such as it was, it gave him the courage to dress, and go with Lady Alice to dine with Paula and her father. It supported his through the ordeal of the evening, and helped him to conceal his pain, as he watched Paula's faded efforts to infuse into her regard for him something which was not there.

It was when he was driving back to the hotel with his sister that the current of his thoughts changed again.

"Well, how did she seem to you?"
he asked, with evident anxiety.

Lady Alice did not reply.

"Did she strike you as being—altered, since you saw her last?"

Lady Alice looked out of the carriage window, and still kept silence.

"Why don't you answer?" he persisted.

"Because I'm trying to think of what to say."

"You mean, of what will give me least pain."

"Yes, Ludovic."

"I don't think you need mind about that—now. I appreciate your hesitation, but it's more or less needless. You know things that I don't, and yet do know more than you may suppose."

"That's rather enigmatical."

"No, it isn't. It means only that I've learned so much that you needn't be afraid to tell me everything."

"What makes you think that I have anything to tell?"

Roger Winship spent two nights with you at Edenbridge—"

"Well?"

"I don't imagine that you discussed pictures all the time."

"We didn't."

"No; he took you into his confidence, and told you about himself —and—Paula."

Lady Alice seemed lost in the contemplation of the lights and carriages as they crossed the Place de l'Etoile.

"Aren't you going to speak?"
Wiltshire went on.

"What's the good of speaking, Lu-dovic? If Roger Winship said anything to me, it's best to bury it in silence. You and Paula are to be married next week, and so—"

"The good of speaking lies in the fact that I need to know. Circumstances that touch me most closely are familiar to you, to Winship, to Trafford, to Paula—in short, to every one but myself. There's no one to whom I can turn for the information so naturally as to you."

"But, Ludovic," she cried, in tones of astonishment, "I should think you'd see it."

"See what?"

Lady Alice had to brace herself before she replied. It was no easy thing to deal at her brother the blow which must inflict on him a lifelong pain. She had to remind himself again that he was the head of the house of Holroyd, and must,
at all costs, be true to the history and traditions of his race. Paula Trafford might be charming in herself, but no Holroyd could look upon the marriage as other than a family disaster. "The daughter of a notorious, low-born Yankee freebooter," their uncle, Lord George, had called her, when the engagement was announced to him; and much as Lady Alice liked Paula for her own sake, she could not deny that the designa-

MARVEL FLOUR

IS OUR BEST ADVERTISEMENT

LISTMAN MILL COMPANY

tion was just. It was a case in which Ludovic had to be saved from himself but, even so, Lady Alice argued, she would have had the weakness to spare him if Paula had only loved him.

"See what?" she exclaimed, echoing her brother's words. "See that the girl is dying on her feet, because—"

"Because," he broke in, "she's going to marry me."

"Not quite that, Ludovic. But because she isn't going to marry Roger Winship."

"You don't know," he cried, desperately. "You've only his word for it."

"I haven't only his word, I've hers.
I know what happened—and what's happening."

"What do you mean—what's happening?"

"I've told you. She's fading out of life. You must all be blind not to see it."

"And—what happened?"

"You make me say it. Ludovic, mind you. I would have kept it from you if I could. Last spring, about the time you came back from the Cape, Paula became engaged to Roger Winship. The father consented, and they might have been married, only that Roger wouldn't accept, nor let her accept, any of the Trafford money. Then it was all broken off, naturally enough. There!
Now you know all there is to know.
You'll hate me long as you live for

"I had a very bad form of cough and hoarseness, and after trying a great many remedies I decided to try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and I thank God and you that it came to my mind, as nothing I had tried before relieved me of my suffering like it did. Words cannot express the good results I obtained and I can truly recommend it."

Mrs. Rev. J. T. Price,
18 Vine St., Bloomfield, N. J.
TRIAL BOTTLE FREE
of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup to all who will write for it and mention this paper. Address
A. C. MEYER & CO., Baltimore, Md.
Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup can be given with perfect safety to the youngest child. It is absolutely pure. Guaranteed under the National Pure Food and Drug Act, No. 226.

ICE CREAM

VANILLA STRAWBERRY
PINEAPPLE
IN QUART BRICKS
—FOR—SUNDAY.
Ice Cream & Butter
Company

BILLIARDS & POOL

124 N. THIRD ST.
PRICE LIST
Rotation.....2½c per cue 15 Ball.....10c per game
8 Ball.....2½c per cue Billiards.....40c per hour
A. D. STRAUSS

XMAS PHOTOS

The Time Is Drawing
Near When You Will Think Of XMAS PHOTOS
Think of them NOW and come to my
NEW STUDIO

W. A. Pryor
524 MAIN STREET

DR. J. W. LAWRENCE,
DENTIST.

4th and Jay Sts. La Crosse, Wis.

PERFECTION

in the Laundry Art Is Attained at NORTH SIDE LAUNDRY
MRS. L. B. SULLIVAN, Proprietor.
Prompt Delivery
Both Phones
728 MILL STREET

THE LA CROSSE TRIBUNE

NORTH SIDE OFFICE
811 ROSE ST.
R. P. STANTON
JOS. K. KIDDER
NEW PHONE 755-A.
North Side Advertising and News handled from this office.

REV. SANDERS IN STORY OF SOUTH

WRITES OF HIS EXPERIENCE ON THE SOUTHWEST

COMPARES NORTH AND SOUTH

North Side Boy Minister Declares the Land is More Cultivated and Better Cared For

Rev. L. L. Sanders, the "boy pastor" of the North Side Presbyterian church, writing The Tribune from the south, where he is now on a lecturing tour, says:

Notes From the Southland.

Since writing The Tribune, I have traveled through southeast Missouri, Arkansas and Oklahoma. No adequate idea of the growth of this country could be conveyed upon paper to the reader. Land that a few years ago was covered with water, has been drained, ditched and cleared and will now sell at prices ranging from $25 to $100 per acre. The chief drawback with the farms is the class of tenants, and the style of homes. Fifty years from now this will all have been remedied.

A Comparison of the North and South

George Washington was wise when in his last public speech, he deprecated the tendency to speak of sectional peculiarities and weaknesses. The south is rapidly developing. There can be no doubt but that the north is far in advance of the south in many ways. The land is more improved, the farms are better tended, the homes are more modern and comfortable, the people as a whole are more highly educated. The south was practically devastated by the war. The progress since then has been marvelous. Universities are springing up as if by magic. Colleges are being established, most of them by religious bodies. Texas has the third largest religious university in the Baptist denomination.

Oklahoma—The Land of "Push."

Oklahoma has lately been admitted to the union. The chief outlet for the indomitable "push" of the people now (especially democrats) is in an effort to secure office. The territory has always been republican. Now that Oklahoma has become a state, and the democrats have been shown to be in the majority, they are determined to "clean out" all the republican office holders. It is a pity that our state universities and schools can not be separated from politics. Our institutions of education should be ruled for the common good, and not as a means of employment for incompetent politicians. Many teachers who are capable will be discharged as a result of this political change.

Every one seems satisfied with prohibition, save those who are dissatisfied. Saloon men declare the law unconstitutional, yet fear to disobey it. The Anti-Saloon league made a vigorous campaign. The officers seem determined to enforce the law. Haskell was elected by the temperance people, though many saloon men voted for him believing his utterances against the liquor traffic to be naught but political hoodwinking. His utterance at the inauguration seems rather "tame."

Local Progress.

El Reno recently offered land and buildings worth $400,000 to the Baptists of the state, for a location of their great state university. The Chamber of Congress was active in the matter. Such "push" on the part of the business men of a city will locate anything they want. They get the university. Oklahoma City in 1889 was a small railway station; now it is a great city, with skyscrapers and all the signs of progress. Towns are springing up by magic. This country will be settled within a few years. The climate is all that could be desired.

The Bank Panic and the President.

The influence of the recent stringency in the money market has been felt everywhere. It has injured business to some extent, though not as much as the walling pessimists would have us believe. The people have been willing to wait, and in general have shown much confidence in the banks. Few objections are heard to the retention of currency and the refusal to pay it out in large amounts. General hopefulness prevails everywhere.

Democrats and republicans believe it an attempt to injure the president. It has at least increased his political capital. The blame is laid at the door of the speculators and the president was commended for his course in the affair.

Oklahoma would go republican in a national election, though the race might be close. The logical candidates of Missouri, Arkansas and Oklahoma are Theodore Roosevelt and W. J. Bryan. Taft made a good impression on his visit, but did not look like presidential timber. With Teddy eliminated, Bryan is sure to win. His majority over any other candidate the republicans might nominate would be as large as Roosevelt's was over Parker.

NORTH SIDE BRIEFS

Thomas Lidell and wife left yesterday afternoon for Milwaukee, their former home, where they will spend a few days with the former's parents. Mr. Lidell is foreman at the north side Milwaukee round house and shops.

Miss Bertie Meyers and L. M. Pfiffner of Winona are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hixcox and family at 602 Mill street.

One of the biggest engines manufactured out of the St. Paul shops is now in use in the switching yards on the north side. The number of the engine is 1182 and work in the yards is carried on with this train with more speed than with the other engines as she is capable of taking care of larger and heavier trains in making them up.

R. A. Riek and wife who now reside at Rheinfelder, Wis., arrived last evening on train No. 5 for a few days' visit with the parents of the former Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Riek and family at 1601 Loomis street. Mr. Riek who is an accomplished violinist, has charged of the orchestra at Rheinfelder, which is a very patriotic little town and prides itself upon the quality of its orchestra and band.

Horace Norton and Congressman John J. Esch will leave tonight for Washington in order to be there for the opening session of congress, held Monday.

Timothy Mahoney of No. 2 fire station, who has been laid up for a few days suffering from a severe cold, has resumed his duties at the station.

Friends in this city have received word from Henry Gohres who is in Fairbanks, Alaska, that he has received a promotion in the fire department at that place and is now receiving a salary of $150 a month. Mr. Gohres is a former member of the La Crosse department and at the time of his leaving for Alaska was at the No. 2 station.

Clifford Fletcher spent yesterday and today with his family in this city. Mr. Fletcher, who was formerly a fireman at No. 2 station, is now employed as a switchman for the Milwaukee in the yards at Portage.

Mr. P. Woodworth of South Bend, Ind., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Murphy, 728 Gould street.

Dan Moore and family who spent Thanksgiving with friends and relatives in Mormon Coulee, have returned to their home on the North side.

Mrs. G. W. Wolfe is visiting with friends in Dubuque.

Miss Cyril Thomas of Hettinger, N. D., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gullickson, 1543 Charles street.

Mrs. C. P. Thomas is the guest of friends and relatives in Tamson, Ill.

Mrs. Gullickson has just returned to her home, 1543 Charles street, after an extended visit with friends and relatives in Chicago.

S. Lodne, 2108 Wood street, who was stricken with paralysis, some time ago, is slowly recovering.

Rudolf Riek of Lisbon, S. D., is visiting at the home of his father, C. W. Riek, on the North side.

Miss Leona Dodge, who is attending the state normal school at Winona, spent Thanksgiving at her home in this city.

A house party was held at the Dodge home yesterday afternoon in her honor. There were a large number present and all enjoyed a good time.

Sam Kelley and wife of Rushford, Minn., have purchased a house on Caledonia street and will make La Crosse their home.

NOTABLES ENLIVEN FEAST WITH SPEECH

(Continued from page one.)

Young ladies of the congregation, was as follows, including the feature of white wine, a special brand of St. Joseph Cathedral cigars, and dainty souvenirs consisting of pretty baskets filled with bon-bons:

Menu.

Oysters, Kreutzmacher
Soup
Consomme en tasse
Relishes

Olives
Celery en branches
Salted Almonds Water Crackers
Catsup Relieve

Veal au Jus
Peas a la Francaise
Mashed Potatoes
Entrées

Cold Tongue a la gelée, Sliced Ham
Roast

Turkey au Jus, Cranberry Sauce
Lettuce Salad, French Dressing
Entremets

Tarte aux Pommes
Vanilla Ice Cream, Assorted Cake
Coffee, Cream
Cigars, Souvenirs

Just before the menu was finished the program of toasts was begun as follows:

Toasts.

Toastmaster, Rev. G. Sluyter.
Our Holy Father Pius X.—Rt. Rev. James Schwebach.

Our City—Hon. Wendell A. Anderson.
Ballad—"Ah, 'Twas a Dream"—Logan-Kreutz's Orchestra.

Our Parochial School—Very Rev. Msgr. A. Ph. Kremer, v. g.
Our Country—Dr. Edward Evans.
Intermezzo—"Little Kinkies"—Benedix-Kreutz's Orchestra.

Our Parish—E. Hackner.
Our Ladies—Prof. A. A. Schubert.
"America."

Father Sluyter.
Rev. Father Sluyter, in opening, said in part:

"We are assembled here this evening to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the dedication of our school, and it is a happy event indeed. It

TRAIN EAST AT 4:45 DECEMBER 1

NEW TIME CARD RE-ESTABLISH-ES OLD SCHEDULE.

58 WON'T CARRY PASSENGERS

Train Will be Used Exclusively for Mail and Baggage Between Minneapolis and Chicago

An old train which was on the Milwaukee road years ago will be re-established on Dec. 1st, when a time card will go into effect and several changes are made in the trains which pass through La Crosse.

Trains No. 15 and 16 which have been coming from Minneapolis will be taken off and there will no longer be a train for the east at 2:45 a. m. as No. 2 will be taken off the schedule entirely.

Those who used to take the train No. 58 at 6:55 p. m. for the east will now have to wait and take the new train which will go east at 8:45 p. m. as train No. 58 will no longer carry passengers and will be a through mail train from Minneapolis to Chicago. She will also carry express and baggage, but the passenger coaches will be taken off.

The trains going east will then be as follows:

No. 6—East, at 12:55 at noon.
No. 58—Through mail at 6:55 p. m.

New train—8:45 p. m., in place of No. 2 at 2:45 a. m.

No. 56—At 11:05 p. m.
No. 4—At 12:40, midnight.
All trains going east.

GIVE FRIENDS FARE- WELL RECEPTION

Sunday evening at her home, 621 Avon street, Miss Lillian Hilbert gave a farewell reception to a number of her friends. They will leave soon for Minneapolis, after a short visit with friends and relatives on the North side.

brings back many happy reminiscences, which will no doubt be remembered by our bishop, Right Rev. James J. Schwebach, who will address you on Our Holy Father, Pius X. And his words will be ever so much more interesting as it was but a short time ago that he made a personal visit to His Holiness, at Rome.

Rt. Rev. Bishop.

"The immortal Leo the thirteenth history records as one of the greatest intellects of the age," said the bishop. "His trials speak for him even more loudly than his praise."

"The reign of Pope Leo XIII. of more than a quarter of a century, is followed with a most remarkable Catholic reaction marked by a most wonderful growth and consolidation within and favor without."

"The church in honoring Leo in his trials honors herself."

"I will give you a slight idea of the reign of Pope Leo by mentioning that he created 140 cardinals, 2 patriarchs, 13 M. Sees, 140 episcopal sees, 50 apostolic delegates and 34 other offices, besides a number of minor offices. Truly Pope Leo did a wonderful work."

"It is still fresh in the minds of many of the last days upon this earth of that noble prelate. How the whole world both Catholic and non-Catholic listened for the last words of the dying prelate with equal interest."

"Even in death he did a great thing for the church and for God as many who had seemed indifferent were brought back and bound more firmly than ever."

Pope Pius.

"Cardinal Patriarch Sarcho was not a great man until he had been raised to his dignity by Pope Leo, who saw in him the coming leader of the church of God upon earth today, which position he solemnly accepted on August of 1902, as the vicar of Christ here on earth in the name of Pius X."

"Before that time he was not very well known. He had hardly ever been in Rome or outside of Italy, and had never occupied a high position. He became distinguished by his exalted virtue, zeal and valor and wonderful charity and particularly for his love of the poor."

"Pius X. is most amiable, most kind. These characteristics of the supreme pontiff I will never forget. He seemed to draw me to him during the few moments that I was before his presence and his kindness personified."

Pius a Grand Man.

"At the same time he is firm and determined and manifests these characteristics in the plans which he has in view and lays down for his progress. To restore all things in Christ, all must be renovated upon earth and Christ is to be made master in human hearts."

"Pius in his other encyclicals to the world takes one of the steps in that direction when he orders the re-establishment of the old church music which he says moves the heart in the temple of God."

"He says, 'That is the music for the house of God, which invites to prayer and elevates the heart of man to God.'"

"Another important step which Pius took when he created the commission to codify the laws and do away with all things not necessary at the present time. His wis-

The Better Clothes Store

You'll find such a variety of good things here at such a variety of prices that it's sometimes a question with us what to talk about, guess the most interesting thing just now is the big lot of

Fine Suits and Overcoats

that you ought to see at from $15.00 to $25.00

The special point about them is that they're unusually good values for the money. You'll find Clothes at these prices anywhere, but look at the quality, the values in these.

Bring your most particular requirements to our accessory department—if you don't find "Crimpy" Shirts, Ties, Hosiery, Gloves, etc. we'll miss our guess.

Come on, now, we're just waiting for you.

PETER NEWBURG

CLOTHIERS TO THE PEOPLE 324-326 PEARL ST.

dom is shown in the fact that he says that it is not essential that his teachers of the faith should deliver grand sermons, but that they should be able to instruct the people in the fundamental principles of the faith in the doctrines which were revealed by God.

"They must be prepared in the seminaries for this work, he says."

"Thus has his wonderful work in the past four years been, and in his recent encyclical on Modernism condemning false doctrine he gains the favor of the majority of the world."

"We have all reason to be proud of Pius X., and we have reason to pray that his work will continue. Long live Pope Pius, the supreme head of the church here upon earth."

The bishop was greeted with much applause.

Mayor W. A. Anderson.

Rev. Sluyter said we have need in our days, for men with personalities, like those of Pius X., with his kindness to humanity and his firmness of conviction. The world is better for the possession of them he said, "but we will now take the lightning express and come home to mother, to our own country and even to our own La Crosse, the fairest spot to all who come to us; to those who ever lived among us."

"During the month of August I was off duty for a time and took a trip to Illinois, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri, where many of the former members of the St. Joseph's cathedral have located and they expressed the desire that they might at some future date come back to La Crosse. The general make up of La Crosse is good and it owes much to our next speaker, the Hon. Dr. Wendell A. Anderson, who will respond to the toast, 'Our City.'"

The Bishop of Boston.

"In regard to what the mayor has done for this city I must relate a story of Bishop Johnston of Boston, who was about to question a class in their catechism. When he saw the little ones before him and saw how they seemed to fear he would be too harsh with them, he thought he would ask them an easy question so he asked a little boy, 'Who made the world.' The little boy hesitated for some time abashed by the presence of the bishop and somewhat frightened by the audience and then responded, 'I didn't.'"

"I signify by my presence the great honor which I consider it to have been invited to come here to assist in the success in the school matter to which Rev. Sluyter has just referred. But I envy the toastmaster and am reminded of another Boston man who presided and said his principle business was in rolling beer kegs to the front, taking his fill and carrying away as much as he could."

La Crosse Clean City.

"In regard to the city of La Crosse I am reminded of what Shakespeare says, 'What is a city but the people, which leads to the thought of whether they are good or bad. I am constrained to believe regardless of all I hear that La Crosse is not so very bad. She is the peer if not the superior of any city in the state. Graft is heralded all over the country, but compare the graft in the city with that of the great corporations and you will find that the city is much better and will come out away in the lead. I have been in the council for several years and have been criticized by aldermen many times, but in looking around the chamber you could never see on any of the foreheads the sign, 'for sale.'"

"Those who know least about the city are most prone to criticize. I don't object to criticism when founded upon fact and it may be as unsparing as you please, but it is the promiscuous criticism to which I refer and I guess that I will have to do as they do in Chicago, and have a clearing house certificate on the matter."

Fame of Our Streets.

"A lady from La Crosse, a lady from Chicago and a lady from New York visited the factory of most immaculate cleanliness where they can soap and other delicacies in New York. They ate lunch and during that time the proprietor asked the New York lady where she was from and she responded from New York; and are you from New York also? turning to the lady from Chicago. 'No,' she said, 'I am from Chicago.' And turning to the lady from La Crosse she responded that she was from La Crosse, whereupon the proprietor inquired, 'That pretty little city with such clean streets. Chicago was not in it, neither was New York—it was La Crosse.'"

La Crosse First.

"It would be possible to have her morals as clean as her streets and I believe we now rank as well in that line as any city in the state. I was to the ball game today and to a ten dollar banquet. I saw one chair go down, and I know how many more would have gone down if it had been a $15 affair. (Applause.)"

"But La Crosse is all right, if the mayor is not, and I feel that my few words have stuck a discordant note. We must have a little foam on the soda water. In Canada they say, 'Canada First.' We should say La Crosse first."

Msgr. Kremer.

"The doctor's address was certainly inspiring to every one of us," said the toastmaster, "and I can assure him that none of the St. Joseph's Cathedral parish will ever be 'knockers.' Keep your eye on La Crosse' is the motto for the city. Keep your eye on the St. Joseph's parochial school," is the motto for the parish. There we try to educate about 300 children annually to prosper in life and at the same time to stand up for righteousness. The next speaker will tell you more. I introduce the Very Rev. Msgr. A. Ph. Kremer, V. G.

School Important.

Rev. Kremer spoke in German. He said:

"In our midst is the school to which many have gone for the past ten years with happy hearts. Your schools try to bring up your children as they would be brought up by their own mother, where ever possible. The children should be optimistic for happiness always. When they grow older they look back upon their school with much pride. Some of them may say what good is it for to learn, when we still have to keep on going to school, but they do not realize at the time what knowledge means."

"I have three things which I wish to say about the school."

"First—We should teach the children to strike high. The highest is not too high and teach them so that they may attain a high degree of efficiency. But the children must not only be taught to make a living but should get some happiness out of this life. God created them not only to live and eat, but to enjoy many things which they cannot possess."

"He created the flowers which should be made to bloom in happiness along the path of each and every child, and he sent out the winged songsters, to cheer and brighten them. They should always expect happiness. It is not what we have that brings us happiness, but what we have that we can get along without, to assist others, that makes us happy. They should always be optimistic and say, 'Nothing can make me unhappy.' They should say that they will be happy in spite of all trials with which they may meet. They cannot expect all the flowers or certain ones. Some flowers bloom for certain persons and others for others."

"Second—The children should be taught to look to God. Where can they find solace if not in him. It is most practical that they should look to him."

What Is Soulless Wealth.

"Third—What does it profit a man if he gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his own soul. Wealth soon vanishes like the sunshine of yesterday. They should not be taught that wealth and position are all. If a child is good in school they are rarely bad citizens."

"Look to the schools and educate the children to respect their parents' honor and be loyal to their city and hope for heaven."

Words of Truth.

Toastmaster Rev. Sluyter then apologized for the Rev. Kremer, saying that he had given the address in German on account of the fact that there were many elderly German persons present who might not be quite familiar with the English. "I thank the Reverend from

(Continued on page 5.)

OYSTERS AND CELERY
ORANGES, BANANAS,
LEMONS, GRAPES, CRANBERRIES, NEW NUTS, FIGS
AND DATES

JOHN C. BURNS
FRUIT HOUSE.

The Turkey Is King
This Week, But
NEBUER GINGER ALE
Is King Every Week.

N. S. BOTTLING WORKS
901-903 ROSE ST. BOTH PHONES

NOTABLES ENLIVEN FEAST WITH SPEECH
(Continued from Page Four).

the bottom of my heart for his grand words which are as true as true can be. The Catholic church and her schools have great liberty in this country for, where in this continent or on the globe does Catholicism prosper as in America and among Americans. Truly should we sing 'My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty.'"

Dr. E. Evans was next introduced: "I am very glad to assist at a banquet of this nature, which has now proved to be a successful issue, but I cannot see why the reverend father should have 'sandwiched' me between the doctors, reverends, professors and politicians, unless he thought that it was one of those toasts which would take care of itself."

"I was at the football game and rooted and am hoarse. I remember the poet says 'It is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all' and so I guess it is better to have rooted and lost than never to have rooted at all."

He remarked that he did not care whether the speech suited or not as he was going to leave town when it was over. He said it was no wonder the doctor was good at it, as he had been at a banquet at Windsor hotel in Canada 25 years ago and heard him talk on the same topic. He finished with a most eloquent and beautiful address on "Our Country."

The doctor and his wife left as soon as he had finished his address as he had to take a train out of the city.

Rev. Sluyter said that the speaker showed that even the adopted sons of America were truly loyal and patriotic.

E. Hackner.

E. Hackner responded in German to a toast "Our Parish," and gave a history of the congregation which he said had started on a very small scale, up to the present time, when it was upon a stable financial basis.

Father Sluyter said it was not only necessary for a congregation to be well financed, but that they should also profit spiritually.

Tribute to Mothers.

Professor Schubert in his toast on "Our Ladies," held the interest of the audience from the start.

"After all the toasts what would they amount to if, we did not toast our ladies," he said. "I can wager that if the kindness of the venerable pontiff be traced back it will be found to have been the result of a

PERSONALS

Fresh cream patties at Pfund's. Miss Harriet Jefferson is the guest of friends at Beloit for a few days. Mrs. John Wilhelm is visiting friends and relatives in Caledonia for a short time.

Customers of ours while visiting our store have frequently expressed their great satisfaction in buying our goods. Our prices are right always, and quality the best. Hellfach, jeweler.

W. B. Smith has returned to his home after witnessing the Sparta-La Crosse game yesterday.

The official Saengerfest cigar, manufactured by John Dengler. Call for it.

Mrs. Fred Shumway has returned from Caledonia, where she attended the funeral of her father, C. A. Hjelming, who died suddenly of heart failure.

New arrivals medium priced boys' school shoes, $1.50 to $2.00, L. F. Gautsch, 524 Main.

Mrs. C. H. Chamberlin and daughter and Mrs. Ella Roberts have returned from a visit with friends at Galesville.

Dr. George Powell, consulting physician and surgeon.

J. Egan and sister of Waukon, Ia., are in the city visiting friends.

Joseph Shaker of Osseo, Wis., has moved his family to this city and will reside here for the winter.

H. D. Steffen of Madison was a business caller in La Crosse the first of the week.

Neils Amunson, shoe repairer, now at Gautsch's, strictly hand work.

Constipation, indigestion, drive away appetite and make you weak and sick. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea restores the appetite, drives away disease, builds up the system. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Ask your Druggist.

Mrs. A. H. Harn and children of Fountain City are the guests of friends in La Crosse.

At this season every day brings in many customers. The earlier you make your selection the better service we can give you. Hellfach, jeweler.

Miss Bertha Buck of Prosper, Minn., is the guest of friends and relatives in La Crosse.

Miss Mary West has returned to her home in Lanesboro after visiting friends in the city.

S. P. Murphy of Blue Earth, Minn., was renewing acquaintances in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Matthews of Viroqua are the guests of friends in La Crosse this week.

Dr. Will Powell, diseases of women.

Jas. M. Connell of Caledonia was transacting business in the city for a short time yesterday.

A. J. Rank has returned to his home in Spring Grove after transacting business in the city.

Peter Riley is in the city for a few days business visit. He will leave again Monday.

Excellent Carriage Line. Phone 179 Gateway City Transfer Line.

The family of C. A. Doud has moved from 308 North Seventh street, to 409 North Eighth street.

Jacob Braem of Alma has returned home after spending a few days in the city.

F. Gensen and wife of Norwalk were the guests of friends and relatives in the city yesterday.

I ain't feeling right today. Something wrong I must say. Come to think of it, that's right. I forgot my Rocky Mountain Tea last night. Ask your Druggist.

Mr. B. F. Bernard, Jr., of Asheville, N. C., is visiting L. Reid Schoel of the Schoel School of Music.

G. E. Matthews is spending a few days with friends in the city on his way home to Winona from the east.

E. T. White of Monroe is renewing acquaintances in the city for a few days.

It is deliciously palatable, agrees with the weakest stomach, contains the most soothing, healing, strengthening and curative elements. Makes you well and happy. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Ask your Druggist.

J. P. Rodgers is in the city visiting old acquaintances on his trip through the east from his home in Austin.

C. E. Eurr of Aurora is in the city on a brief business visit with La Crosse merchants.

G. Kitchell has returned to his home in Topeka, Kans., after calling on friends in the city.

H. Y. Murphy of Fountain was a business caller in the city the first of the week.

Make your selection now. Our stock is complete. Hellfach, jeweler.

G. G. Parker has returned to his home in Madison after visiting with friends in the city.

Lester and Myrtle Peck of Bangor are the guests of relatives in the city.

B. F. Elverer, Jr., of Aberley, Ia., is in the city calling on old acquaintances.

Our stock is one of the largest in the state and greatly exceeds that of any other firm. Prices are the lowest, quality the best. Hellfach, jeweler.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Kestling of Houston are the guests of relatives in the city for a short time.

ed home after spending a few days in the city.

F. Gensen and wife of Norwalk were the guests of friends and relatives in the city yesterday.

I ain't feeling right today. Something wrong I must say. Come to think of it, that's right. I forgot my Rocky Mountain Tea last night. Ask your Druggist.

Mr. B. F. Bernard, Jr., of Asheville, N. C., is visiting L. Reid Schoel of the Schoel School of Music.

G. E. Matthews is spending a few days with friends in the city on his way home to Winona from the east.

E. T. White of Monroe is renewing acquaintances in the city for a few days.

It is deliciously palatable, agrees with the weakest stomach, contains the most soothing, healing, strengthening and curative elements. Makes you well and happy. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Ask your Druggist.

J. P. Rodgers is in the city visiting old acquaintances on his trip through the east from his home in Austin.

C. E. Eurr of Aurora is in the city on a brief business visit with La Crosse merchants.

G. Kitchell has returned to his home in Topeka, Kans., after calling on friends in the city.

H. Y. Murphy of Fountain was a business caller in the city the first of the week.

Make your selection now. Our stock is complete. Hellfach, jeweler.

G. G. Parker has returned to his home in Madison after visiting with friends in the city.

Lester and Myrtle Peck of Bangor are the guests of relatives in the city.

B. F. Elverer, Jr., of Aberley, Ia., is in the city calling on old acquaintances.

Our stock is one of the largest in the state and greatly exceeds that of any other firm. Prices are the lowest, quality the best. Hellfach, jeweler.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Kestling of Houston are the guests of relatives in the city for a short time.

ed home after spending a few days in the city.

F. Gensen and wife of Norwalk were the guests of friends and relatives in the city yesterday.

I ain't feeling right today. Something wrong I must say. Come to think of it, that's right. I forgot my Rocky Mountain Tea last night. Ask your Druggist.

Mr. B. F. Bernard, Jr., of Asheville, N. C., is visiting L. Reid Schoel of the Schoel School of Music.

G. E. Matthews is spending a few days with friends in the city on his way home to Winona from the east.

E. T. White of Monroe is renewing acquaintances in the city for a few days.

It is deliciously palatable, agrees with the weakest stomach, contains the most soothing, healing, strengthening and curative elements. Makes you well and happy. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Ask your Druggist.

J. P. Rodgers is in the city visiting old acquaintances on his trip through the east from his home in Austin.

C. E. Eurr of Aurora is in the city on a brief business visit with La Crosse merchants.

G. Kitchell has returned to his home in Topeka, Kans., after calling on friends in the city.

H. Y. Murphy of Fountain was a business caller in the city the first of the week.

Make your selection now. Our stock is complete. Hellfach, jeweler.

G. G. Parker has returned to his home in Madison after visiting with friends in the city.

Lester and Myrtle Peck of Bangor are the guests of relatives in the city.

B. F. Elverer, Jr., of Aberley, Ia., is in the city calling on old acquaintances.

Our stock is one of the largest in the state and greatly exceeds that of any other firm. Prices are the lowest, quality the best. Hellfach, jeweler.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Kestling of Houston are the guests of relatives in the city for a short time.

ed home after spending a few days in the city.

F. Gensen and wife of Norwalk were the guests of friends and relatives in the city yesterday.

I ain't feeling right today. Something wrong I must say. Come to think of it, that's right. I forgot my Rocky Mountain Tea last night. Ask your Druggist.

Mr. B. F. Bernard, Jr., of Asheville, N. C., is visiting L. Reid Schoel of the Schoel School of Music.

G. E. Matthews is spending a few days with friends in the city on his way home to Winona from the east.

E. T. White of Monroe is renewing acquaintances in the city for a few days.

It is deliciously palatable, agrees with the weakest stomach, contains the most soothing, healing, strengthening and curative elements. Makes you well and happy. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Ask your Druggist.

J. P. Rodgers is in the city visiting old acquaintances on his trip through the east from his home in Austin.

C. E. Eurr of Aurora is in the city on a brief business visit with La Crosse merchants.

G. Kitchell has returned to his home in Topeka, Kans., after calling on friends in the city.

H. Y. Murphy of Fountain was a business caller in the city the first of the week.

Make your selection now. Our stock is complete. Hellfach, jeweler.

G. G. Parker has returned to his home in Madison after visiting with friends in the city.

Lester and Myrtle Peck of Bangor are the guests of relatives in the city.

B. F. Elverer, Jr., of Aberley, Ia., is in the city calling on old acquaintances.

Our stock is one of the largest in the state and greatly exceeds that of any other firm. Prices are the lowest, quality the best. Hellfach, jeweler.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Kestling of Houston are the guests of relatives in the city for a short time.

ed home after spending a few days in the city.

F. Gensen and wife of Norwalk were the guests of friends and relatives in the city yesterday.

I ain't feeling right today. Something wrong I must say. Come to think of it, that's right. I forgot my Rocky Mountain Tea last night. Ask your Druggist.

Mr. B. F. Bernard, Jr., of Asheville, N. C., is visiting L. Reid Schoel of the Schoel School of Music.

G. E. Matthews is spending a few days with friends in the city on his way home to Winona from the east.

E. T. White of Monroe is renewing acquaintances in the city for a few days.

It is deliciously palatable, agrees with the weakest stomach, contains the most soothing, healing, strengthening and curative elements. Makes you well and happy. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Ask your Druggist.

J. P. Rodgers is in the city visiting old acquaintances on his trip through the east from his home in Austin.

C. E. Eurr of Aurora is in the city on a brief business visit with La Crosse merchants.

G. Kitchell has returned to his home in Topeka, Kans., after calling on friends in the city.

H. Y. Murphy of Fountain was a business caller in the city the first of the week.

Make your selection now. Our stock is complete. Hellfach, jeweler.

G. G. Parker has returned to his home in Madison after visiting with friends in the city.

Lester and Myrtle Peck of Bangor are the guests of relatives in the city.

B. F. Elverer, Jr., of Aberley, Ia., is in the city calling on old acquaintances.

Our stock is one of the largest in the state and greatly exceeds that of any other firm. Prices are the lowest, quality the best. Hellfach, jeweler.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Kestling of Houston are the guests of relatives in the city for a short time.

ed home after spending a few days in the city.

F. Gensen and wife of Norwalk were the guests of friends and relatives in the city yesterday.

I ain't feeling right today. Something wrong I must say. Come to think of it, that's right. I forgot my Rocky Mountain Tea last night. Ask your Druggist.

Mr. B. F. Bernard, Jr., of Asheville, N. C., is visiting L. Reid Schoel of the Schoel School of Music.

G. E. Matthews is spending a few days with friends in the city on his way home to Winona from the east.

E. T. White of Monroe is renewing acquaintances in the city for a few days.

CITY NEWS

ELKS DANCE TONIGHT—The first informal dancing party since the redecoration of the Elks' club, will be held this evening, and promises to be a most enjoyable affair. The decorations and flowers used for the Thanksgiving stag will be allowed to remain in the club rooms for the party.

SPARTA'S CONFIDENCE—An indication of Sparta's confidence of victory in the big football game yesterday is found in the fact that a banner, "State Champions," and cards bearing the words "Champions, Ha, Ha," had been prepared in advance and were in prompt evidence at the end of the game.

FATHER METZLER AT REST—The funeral of the late Rev. Father John B. Metzler, one of the best known German Catholic priests in Wisconsin, was held at Chippewa Falls Wednesday. Bishop Schwebach observed high mass and Rev. Father Frierweller of Rozellville, Wis., delivered the sermon. Priests from all over the state attended.

WOMAN TRAVELER HERE—Miss Celeste J. Miller of Chicago, renowned as a woman traveler, is visiting in La Crosse as the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Long on South Ninth street. Miss Miller has just completed describing her last trip around the world.

RIVER AT THREE FEET—The river here registers at the three foot stage, and during the past 24 hours fell one-tenth of a foot. The prediction is that it will remain stationary for the next 36 hours.

ALIEN IN DANGER IN MISSISSIPPI

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 29.—"In the east, yes; in the north, yes; in the west, yes; but, ah, in the south, no, no, no," exclaimed an attaché of the Austro-Hungarian embassy, with a dramatic wave of his hand, when asked whether his humble countrymen who come to America were prospering.

He was talking of the action of his government in establishing a boycott upon the state of Mississippi. This step was absolutely necessary, he declared, because both the federal and state authorities had absolutely failed to protect the foreigners, so that there was nothing for his home government to do but to warn its citizens intending to come to the United States to keep away from the state of Mississippi in particular, and to be careful of other southern states as well.

"Men have been murdered in the south," he said, "and not the slightest attention has been paid to it by any of the authorities. Our citizens in some localities have been treated exactly as the negroes have been treated. If they resist they are shot down or assaulted, and we have yet to hear of the first case in which a criminal has been punished."

Nell—"His conversation is frightfully heavy." Bell—"Yes, and yet his words don't seem to carry much weight."

IRVINE'S

Let Christmas be uppermost in your minds, now that Thanksgiving is gone.

Buy your Christmas presents early. You receive all the benefits. There is not the terrible rush and crush that is bound to follow.

Our assortment is very complete, the proper time and thought may be given to each purchase.

DIAMONDS

Most prominent and most appreciative of all gifts. A diamond is not only a gift but an investment. Your gift will be prized more and more each year.

They are indestructible and will last, not only life time, but will be guarded down from generation to generation.

Buy now while our stock is complete in all the different sizes and before they advance further. Light Quarter Karat diamonds. Pure White Stones, Perfect, in Tiffany Mountings $22.00

Light Half Karat Diamond, mounting in Tiffany and Fancy Mounting $65.00

A complete assortment of quarters, halves, three quarters Karat to two Karat diamonds. Perfect stones of beautiful color.

WATCHES

The Lady Elgin, the smallest watch built in America, solid gold cases. The Waltham diamond and ruby models, very small. Solid gold cases. Extremely small imported watches. We guarantee them in every respect. There are no better small watches made. Solid gold cases.

$14.00, $16.00, $18.00 and $20.00

O size U. S. Waltham Watches, 20 years gold filled hunting case $10.00

12 size and 16 Elgin movements $10.00

20 year gold filled cases $10.00

15 J Elgin movement, same case $12.50

17 J Elgin movement, same case $15.00

STERLING SILVER

NOTHING IN USEFUL TABLE WARE CAN BE MORE APPRECIATED THAN A

Sterling Mayonnaise Bowl and Ladle in case $14.50 to $15.50

Sterling Salt and Pepper Sets in cases $16.00 to $24.00

Sterling Berry Bowls $8.00 to $9.00

Sterling Flatware, Teaspoon Sets 6 $8.00 to $12.00

Flatware Dessert Spoon Sets, 6 $8.00 to $12.00

Flatware, Dessert Forks Sets, 6 $8.00 to $12.00

Solid Gold Jewelry, Brooches, Lockets, Rings, Chains, Bead Necklaces, etc. $3.00 to $25.00

Solid Gold Brooches, Pearl Set $5.00 to $50.00

Solid Gold Brooches, Diamond Set $3.50 to $18.00

Solid Gold Lockets, Plain $15.00 and up

Solid Gold Lockets, Diamond Set $2.00 to $15.00

Solid Gold Rings, Stone Set $7.50 to $35.00

Solid Gold Rings, set with Diamonds or other Precious Stones $7.50 to $35.00

Beautiful Cluster Diamonds and Pearls, Diamonds and Opals, Emerald, Ruby and Sapphires.

W. T. IRVINE

429 MAIN STREET

To please the people is possible only by giving honest goods at prices which are low enough to do away with all doubt.

SOCIETY

THANKSGIVING DAY A HAPPY OCCASION Not in fifty years has there been such a Thanksgiving day. The weather was simply ideal. The ball game between Sparta and La Crosse was the all absorbing topic among not only the young people, but those of older years. Bands paraded the streets, the street cars were loaded to utmost capacity, while crowds of pedestrians decorated with the various colors and carrying banners, filled the sidewalks. The La Crosse boys fought well and nobly, but the odds were against them. They took their defeat in good part, hoping for victory the coming season. The day closed with dances, banquets, private dinner parties and family reunions.

DINNER PARTIES. Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Schmidt entertained at a Thanksgiving dinner at their home, 415 West avenue, north. Those who participated at the feast were Fred Master and Emily Schmidt of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frier, Albert Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Hoelzer and Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Schmidt.

THANKSGIVING NOTES. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Montague entertained at dinner yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Samuels, and Mrs. David Samuels of West Salem, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wheeler, Miss Marie Wheeler, Miss Ella Bates, Mr. G. R. Montague and Wallace and Theodore Montague.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Osborne seated a party of twenty-two at their table yesterday. Those present were Mrs. A. R. Osborne, the Misses Clara and Beattie Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Osborne, Miss Edna Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. B. Edwards, the Misses Grace, Helen and Anna Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Edwards and children Theodore and Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Osborne and children, and Mrs. Peck of Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Donaldson had as their guests Rev. and Mrs. S. L. McKee and Miss Lelia McKee of West Salem, and Dr. and Mrs. Suter. At the home of Mr. George H. Gordon were Mr. and Mrs. Mason Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gordon and children, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Goddard, Miss Myrtle Goddard, Mr. Roland Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon, Robert Gordon, Dorothy Gordon and Donald Gordon.

STODDARD DINNERS.

The dining room proper and ladies' ordinary of the Stoddard hotel were taxed to the limit yesterday. About seventy-five were turned away, unable to get accommodations. The Sparta football team was much in evidence and were feeling jolly over their victory. Among those entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Webb who entertained a family party of fourteen in the ladies' ordinary. The table decorations were a large yellow chrysanthemum. After the dinner the guests adjourned to the rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Webb and spent the remainder of the evening at cards. Those present were Mrs. R. B. Webb, Mrs. Mary Eaton, Mrs. Mary Shadoff, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred James, Russell James of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Egbert, Paul and Frances Egbert and Miss Alice Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Merline entertained the members of their family at dinner in honor of their thirty-eighth wedding anniversary. Their guests were the Misses Head, McNair, Heilmann and Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hixon, Josephine Thomason, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ives formed another group of diners.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Tiffany, Miss Mary Alice Smith and Mr. Pearl Tiffany occupied one table.

Mrs. G. C. Hixon entertained at a family dinner. It was also a double anniversary, being the seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Hixon and the birthday of one of the guests. The table was resplendent with hand decorated china, Venetian glass, American beauty roses and poinsettias. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Hixon and Miss Sue Kellertner of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hixon and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hixon, Dorothy and Ellen Hixon and Lloyd Hixon of Mankato.

Judge and Mrs. Fruit entertained at a family dinner. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Will Yoe and two sons of St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hawley, Miss Marion Anderson and the Misses Ruth and Alice Fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Thompson of State street gave a dinner of ten covers. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Getchell, Miss Hazel Getchell, Mrs. Roberts, Miss Schaller of Clear Lake, Ia., Miss Griffin of Minneapolis, Mr. Petrie, Mr. Glenn Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

YOUNG LOUGHREY OUTPOINTS MURPHY

Nervous Break-Down

Nerve energy is the force that controls the organs of respiration, circulation, digestion and elimination. When you feel weak, nervous, irritable, sick, it is often because you lack nerve energy, and the process of rebuilding and sustaining life is interfered with. Dr. Miles' Nervine has cured thousands of such cases, and will we believe benefit if not entirely cure you. Try it.

"My nervous system gave away completely, and I was on the verge of the grave. I tried skilled physicians but got no permanent relief. I got so bad I had to give up my business. I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. In a few days I was much better, and I continued to improve until entirely cured. I am in business again, and never miss an opportunity to recommend this remedy."

MRS. W. L. BURKE,
Nirxle, Creek, Oregon.

Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Nervine, and we authorize him to return price of first bottle (only) if it fails to benefit you.

Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind

THE ELLIOTT-LOEFFLER COMPANY
.....Wholesale.....
WINES AND LIQUORS Imported and Domestic Mineral Water, Ginger Ales, Club Soda, Bass Ales, Dublin Stout, Etc.
FULL LINE OF BAR GLASSWARE
Both Phones 193
222 AND 224 PEARL STREET

HOLLISTER'S Rocky Mountain Tea Nuggets Brings Golden Health and Renewed Vigor.
A specific for Constipation, Indigestion, Liver and Kidney troubles, Flatulency, Eczema, Impure Blood, Bad Breath, Sluggish Bowels, Headache and Backache. Its Rocky Mountain Tea in tablet form, 35 cents a box. Genuine made by HOLLISTER DRUG COMPANY, Madison, Wis.
GOLDEN NUGGETS FOR SALLOW PEOPLE

I have lot of Diamonds, will sell at Half Their Value
C. B. STEVENS
OPTICIAN.
209 McMillan Building.

THE SECURITY SAVINGS BANK
LA CROSSE, WIS.
Invest your BUSINESS And SAVINGS ACCOUNTS
DRAFTS Sold On All Parts of The World.
Deposits made prior to 5th, draw interest from 1st of each month.

Condensed Statement of the Condition of the STATE BANK OF LA CROSSE, La Crosse, Wisconsin, at the Close of Business, August 22, 1907.

RESOURCES.
Loans and Discounts	$692,457.92
Overdrafts	110.83
U. S. and other bonds and securities	81,103.50
Banking house and fixtures	8,000.00
Due from banks and in vault	294,955.11
Total	$1,076,627.92
LIABILITIES.
Capital stock	$50,000.00
Surplus	50,000.00
Undivided profits	9,906.15
Deposits	966,721.77
Total	$1,076,627.92

The coal dealer should naturally make it warm for us.

FURS AND CASH LIFTED AT DANCE

ELKS LOSE DOZEN TURKEYS DURING BLOWOUT

LAST NIGHT'S THEFT FOLLOWS

Police Now Have Case and Are Looking for the Pilferers—Loss Last Night Heaviest

During the reception and dance for the Sparta football team by the La Crosse school last evening at the Elks' hall, in the theater building, thieves entered the cloakroom while the dancing was in progress and helped themselves to a cravenet coat with $3.80 in the pockets and two fur boas.

During the dancing, at the early part of the evening, the hall was crowded with Sparta and La Crosse footballers, who came up for a short time to watch the dancing, and it is believed that the articles were taken at this time, as everybody was interested in the dancing and gave an excellent opportunity for the thieves to escape.

The discovery of the missing articles was made about 11 o'clock, when Miss B. Leissring went into the ladies' dressing room and found her coat on the floor. She investigated and found that her fur boa was missing. The box was in the sleeve of her coat and besides the box was a large silk scarf, but the thieves left the scarf, taking nothing but the fur boa. Miss Leissring notified the managers of the dance and the police were sent for, but no clue could be found.

Murrel Savage and Joseph Fowler, managers of the dance, stated this morning that they had a clue to the robbery, but were waiting for more evidence before making any arrests.

Wednesday evening during the Elks' festival, their club about a dozen dressed turkeys were stolen. The police are now working on the case.

FOR RESTORATION OF CONFIDENCE

Anent the financial trouble which has been existing in regard to an insufficient supply of cash, the Oshkosh chamber of commerce has adopted the following communication which will be forwarded to Washington:

"The financial trouble in New York has spread to the interior towns in the west.
"Our factories have curtailed their product and if present banking conditions continue many factories will be compelled to shut down. To force our laborers to accept clearing house certificates would cause a panic at once. We are in no way responsible for the disturbed conditions and are helpless to improve them and would ask that the original mistake of issuing clearing house certificates be corrected at once.

"We fully believe you have the power to do so and would ask you to exercise it."

A copy of the letter was sent to Secretary A. A. Bentley of the La Crosse Board of Trade today, and the local organization was asked to take similar steps.

The Merchants' association of New York has adopted similar measures for the promotion of the restoration of business confidence.

Similar resolutions may be introduced for adoption at the next session of the La Crosse Board of Trade.

MAYOR SUICIDES IN FIT OF DESPONDENCY

DETROIT, Nov. 29.—John B. Fossen, mayor of Ypsilanti, Mich., shot and killed himself in bed today. It is supposed he was despondent because the council opposed him in a scheme to have the city purchase land and present it to the normal college.

Parker JEWELER
510 MAIN ST.
LA CROSSE, WIS.

SOLID GOLD JEWELRY
Arrived by Monday morning's express from New York, a grand collection of brooches, pendants, scarf pins, link buttons, festoon necklaces and rings and they are just in time for those who want gifts that carry with them the touch of refined and delicate sentiment.
Every show case is a little garden of beauty—a very fairland of loveliness with its flowers and fanciful figures and delicate traceries in gold.
The price range is from $1.00 to $100.00.

Parker JEWELER
510 MAIN ST.
LA CROSSE, WIS.

The Chicago annual flower show, just closed, which is an international event in horticulture, was the mecca of many floriculturists. For the last three years in rose contest premier honors have been taken by the Mrs. Marshall Field rose. One of the first and principal challengers for this season's premier honors was an Alice Roosevelt pink rose from the west. A warm contest resulted when the Alice Roosevelt rose sought to become the first holder of national honors, but Mrs. Field retained the distinction.

RAISE $50,000 TO MOVE COUNTY SEAT

PACKWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 29.—(Special).—Business men have raised a fund of $50,000 as a bonus to secure a change in the location of the county seat to this city. The proposition is now before the county board. The local civic enterprise association is working hard to convince the county board that Packwaukee is the logical and geographical county center. The $50,000 is stored in the vaults of a local bank. It forms an imposing pile, as it consists entirely of clearing house checks from Milwaukee and Chicago banks. Montello, the present county seat, is fighting a change, but as the county buildings there are becoming dilapidated and antiquated, Packwaukee holds out much hope. A new set of county buildings is promised Packwaukee should the county seat be changed.

JANESVILLE HOST TO STATE Y. M. C. A.

JANESVILLE, Wis., Nov. 29.—(Special).—The Janesville Y. M. C. A. is host today to 200 members of brother associations of Wisconsin. The state convention opened this morning with an unusually large representation. F. A. Crosby of Chicago, international secretary, is here and will deliver a stereotypical lecture on the work of the Y. M. C. A. in the United States at the meeting tonight. R. A. White, another international secretary, is also here to address the Wisconsin branch.

DEERE GRANDSON GET TWENTY MILLION

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., No. 27.—The will of the late Charles Deere, the implement manufacturer, leaves practically his entire fortune of twenty millions to his two grandsons, Chas. D. Deere Wiman and Dwight E. Wiman, to be paid in three installments.

KNIGHTS NOT BACK FROM ASHLAND, WIS.

The local members of the Knights of Columbus, who left Wednesday evening for Ashland, Wis., where they assisted in an initiation of a large class of new members, will not return until this evening or tomorrow.

In the party was Past Grand Knight John F. Doherty, Jos. J. Frisch, tax commissioner; Financial Secretary Will Rosseter of the National bank and James B. Murray.

CALVERT RECEIVES MANY MORE REPLIES

Secretary R. Calvert of the Manufacturers and Jobbers, has received a large number of circulars in addition to those which were at first sent, in response to new "home boosting" circulars recently sent out.

Tomorrow will end the time for reception of replies.

The new replies will be classified after which a meeting of the local patriotism committee will be called to prepare a report.

MOREHOUSE GETS DECISION TODAY

A decision, giving the plaintiff full damages in the suit of Stephen Morehouse against William Wolf, a town of Campbell farmer, for work during the summer, was rendered by Judge John A. Daniels in justice court today. Morehouse sued Wolf for $63. Notice of appeal was filed by attorneys for the defendant.

HUNS NEAR RIOT ON STEAMER

RACINE, Wis., Nov. 29.—A riot was threatened at the docks of the Barry Transportation company when officers of a steamer bound for Chicago roused the ire of 200 Hungarians by refusing to carry their household furniture as hand luggage from here to Chicago.

A compromise was finally effected, whereby the household furniture was stowed in the hold of the steamer without charge.

BASKET BALL TO LEAD THIS WINTER

SIX TEAMS HAVE JOINED THE Y. M. C. A. LEAGUE.

HAVE INTERESTING CONTEST

E. A. Erickson Is Appointed Manager and Says the Season will Be an Interesting One.

Six teams are now entered in the basket ball league at the Y. M. C. A. and several other teams are intending to enter in a few days. As a winter sport basket ball is now generally being regarded as the national indoor game and considerable interest has been shown in the game at the Y. M. C. A. this year. A large number of players are showing up for practice each evening and from the present outlook an excellent league will be formed.

E. A. Erickson has been appointed manager of the league and he predicts some interesting contests for the winter.

The first game of the series will be played tomorrow evening and hereafter two games will be played at the auditorium every Saturday evening. The Tigers will play the Badgers and the White Sox the Midgets tomorrow evening.

The following teams have registered to play in the league:

Red Sox—M. Peterson, E. Stavrum, R. Gilbertson, A. Johnson, R. Bradish.

Midgets—C. Bradish, E. Lockman, Dickens, Ulrich, Simerlin.

Tigers—E. Horton, C. Mathys, D. Larsen, F. Buchda, W. Zein.

Vets—E. Erickson, A. Erickson, G. Roy, O. Zuden, E. Erickson.

Badgers—A. Anderson, E. Voight, C. Bonville, B. Nelson, A. Mueller.

White Sox—C. Neppard, W. Freehoff, C. Hyde, P. Esch, J. Bjornstad.

BUSINESS BRIGHTENS UP IN TWO NATIONS

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Today saw the most confident tone in the stock market and financial circles that has been experienced since the slump. Cables show American stocks in London to be enjoying a revival, copper alone remaining heavy. There was more activity and greater confidence in New York than at any time during thirty days.

Chicago Feels It.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Business and market conditions are looking up considerably. This was the best day so far and the bears are trying to explain away activity in the stock market. Banks and general business seem to feel the pulse of returning prosperity.

CLAM STATION AGENTS ARE HERE

Prof. Lafevere, and Prof. Curtis, members of the faculty of the University of Missouri, who are investigating the clam industry on the upper Mississippi, have started work at the La Crosse sub-station. Yesterday a trip was made to West Channel and several varieties of clam secured. This is the spawning season for clam and a good time to carry on the work.

OPERATED UPON TODAY.

Miss Beatrice Saltz, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Saltz, was operated upon for nose and throat trouble at the La Crosse hospital this morning at about 8 o'clock by Dr. Callahan. She is getting along nicely. Her father is the Rose street barber.

Tomorrow Only

This Coupon is Worth 45 Cents
(Good for to-day only)
Cut out and present at our store, (House-furnishing Dept.) with 40c. You will receive a 85c. 4 quart, Enameled Saucepan, with enameled cover, in the GENUINE STRANSKY WARE Imported Quadruple Coated.
One only to a customer.

To those who have been waiting and to those who have not. We now have a complete line of the

CELEBRATED STRANSKY WARE

Why not avail yourself of the above opportunity

SATURDAY ONLY, NOVEMBER 30th?

Josten Hardware Co.

306-308 PEARL STREET

BUTTONS TO BOOM LA FOLLETTE 1908

LOCAL LEADERS GET CONSIGNMENT OF COAT BADGES

PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN ON

Though Work of the Past Has Been in the Committee Room Public Is in on Ground Floor

Get a La Follette button yet?

If you haven't, see State Senator Thomas Morris, Attorney J. E. McConnell, or District Attorney Otto Bosshard and get on the La Crosse county presidential band wagon.

Everybody is going to be wearing one of these little brown lapel buttons with "La Follette 1908" upon it.

The reason is that it is the first public step in the campaign to secure the presidential nomination for Senator La Follette next year and place him in the White house on the following March.

This morning the first consignment of buttons was received by Senator Morris, chairman of the La Follette organization in the Seventh congressional district. Today the buttons are being delivered to followers and enthusiasts of the former Badger governor. The way they went, it is probable a second lot will be necessary to supply the La Crosse county demand.

The distribution of the buttons is the first work of the committee with the direct public, though the La Follette state and district organization has been in existence for some weeks, the deliberations of the committee have been confined to the members themselves.

Now, it is proposed to launch the campaign.

POWERS ADMITS SHOT FROM CAPITOL BLDG.

GEARGETOWN, Nov. 29.—Attorney Owens, speaking for the defense in the Powers trial today, said he was willing to admit that the fatal shot was fired from the office of the secretary of state, "to save time." B. M. Woodson, a civil engineer of Frankfort, was the first witness. He brought a map showing the plan of the capitol square. The defense made its first objection in what promises to be a great legal battle when Prosecutor Franklin asked the witness if he saw Gen. Dan Collier about the grounds at the time of the shooting. The court sustained the objection.

GOES TO RELIEF OF MRS. LEONARD

Coroner Edward Cronon left at noon today for West Salem, Wis., where he will attempt to secure the release of Mary Leonard from the La Crosse county insane asylum. The Soldiers' Relief commission is exerting itself to have Mrs. Leonard transferred to the Soldiers' home at Milwaukee, Wis., claiming she is sane. Another will elapse before the woman can be released and sent to Milwaukee.

HOBSON CONGRATULATED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 29.—Congressman Hobson is receiving scores of congratulations on the arrival of his Thanksgiving baby boy. His mother will name the child.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—One second hand Detroit Vapor gasoline stove, with oven. Inquire 925 Vine.

A Woman's Health

Is a heritage too sacred to be experimented with. For her peculiar delicate ailments only medicines of known composition and which contain no alcohol, narcotics, or other harmful or habit-forming drug should be employed. The one medicine which fulfills all these requirements is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—a remedy with a record of over forty years of cures to recommend it; a remedy, the makers of which print its formula on every bottle-wrapper and attest its completeness and correctness under oath; a remedy devised and adapted to woman's delicate constitution by an educated physician—an experienced specialist in woman's diseases; a remedy, every ingredient of which has received the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar diseases; a remedy which has more bona-fide cures to its credit than any other sold by druggists for woman's special requirements. It is not given away in the form of "trial bottles" to be experimented with, but is sold at a fair price by all dealers in medicines.

Delicate, weak, nervous women should especially shun the use of alcoholic medicines which, from their stimulating and exhilarating effects may seem, for a time, to do good, but which from the inevitable effects of the alcohol in shrinking up the red corpuscles of the blood are sure to do great and lasting harm in the long run. Besides they beget a craving for stimulants which is most deplorable.

Only invigorating and nerve strengthening effects can follow the use of this famous medicine for women. It can not possibly do harm in any state or condition of the system. It has been carefully adapted to woman's needs by an experienced physician—a specialist in their diseases. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

If a woman has bearing down, or dragging pains, low down in the abdomen, or pelvis, backache, frequent headaches, dizzy or fainting spells, is nervous and easily startled, has gnawing feeling in stomach, sees imaginary floating specks, or spots before her eyes, has melancholia, or "blues," or a weakening disagreeable drain from pelvic organs, she can make no mistake by resorting to the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will invigorate and tone up the whole system and especially the pelvic organs.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic, "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For over-worked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic. As a soothing and strengthening nerve "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

No woman suffering from any of the above symptoms can afford to accept any secret nostrum or medicine of unknown composition, as a substitute for a medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is of known composition and has a record of over forty years of cures and sells more largely to-day than ever before. Its makers withhold no secrets from their patients, believing open publicity to be the very best guaranty of merit.

Dr. Pierce invites all suffering women to consult him by letter free of charge. All letters of consultation are held as strictly private and sacredly confidential and all answers are returned in plain, sealed envelopes. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, "Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." They are the original Little Liver Pills first put up by old Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equalled. They are tiny sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

BIJOU IMPROVED VAUDEVILLE

Four Big Acts
Thomas A. Edison's Moving Pictures
Beautiful Illustrated Songs
Positively the Highest Salaried and Best Line of Acts ever in La Crosse will be presented all this week three times daily.
Matinees Every Day at 3 O'Clock
Don't Miss this Week

Lyric Theatre 318 MAIN

Program—Haunted Hotel, Tenant's Revenge, Auto Thieves, Genevieve of Brabant, Troubles of a Cook.
Change of bill every Sunday and Thursday. A souvenir every Friday evening. Come in when you please. Remain as long as you please. Leave when you choose.
Continuous Show 7 to 10 P. M. 10 Cents

ED. PINAUD'S HAIR TONIC (EAU DE QUININE)

The one sure, safe remedy for hair troubles. It makes the hair beautiful, heavy and fluffy. Use it every day and watch your hair improve.
FREE, a sample bottle of ED. PINAUD'S HAIR TONIC (enough for 3 applications) for 10c. to pay postage and packing.
Write today to ED. PINAUD'S American Offices, Ed. Pinaud Building, New York City. Ask your dealer for ED. PINAUD'S HAIR TONIC.

Gillette Safety Razor

NO STROPPING, NO HONING.
Set consists of 12 double-edged blades (24 keen cutting edges) with triple silver-plated holder in velvet lined case. Each blade good for an average of more than 20 satisfactory shaves. Handle and blade guaranteed to be perfect in material and workmanship. Inquire about SPECIAL FREE TRIAL OFFER.
Gillette Sales Company, 21 Times Building, New York City.

LA CROSSE THEATRE

TONIGHT

MABEL BARRISON & JOSE HOWARD IN THE "FLOWER OF THE RANCH"
SEATS SELLING. 25c TO $1.50

SUNDAY, DEC. 1st, MATINEE AND NIGHT

LOUIS MORRISON

THE DISTINGUISHED ACTOR
(Direction of Hugh Coyle.)

IN A MAGNIFICENT PRODUCTION OF GOETHE'S IMMORTAL

FAUST

Sustaining the great role he has made famous

MEPHISTO

Supported by a strong and selected cast of experienced players, among whom are some great artists.

MATINEE 15c AND 25c. NIGHT 15 to 50c

ONE NIGHT ONLY Monday, Dec. 2

First Engagement in La Crosse of the Eminent English Artiste

OLGA NETHERSOLE

Supported by Her London Company, Including

FRANK MILLS

PRESENTING THE MOST NOTED OF ALL PLAYS

SAPHO

Written Specially for Miss Nethersole by Clyde Fitch from Alphonse Daudet's Great Book of the Same Name

To be Performed Here With the Same Costumes, Scenery and Properties Used in the Larger Cities of the East.

PRICES 50c TO $1.50 SEATS SELLING

TUESDAY, DEC. 3rd

MESSRS. WM. A. BRADY AND JOSEPH GRISMER

ANNOUNCE THE RETURN OF

THE MAN OF THE HOUR

NOW IN ITS 2nd YEAR at the

Savoy Theatre
NEW YORK

FIVE MONTHS AT THE Illinois Theatre
CHICAGO

A PLAY OF NOW AND HERE—BY GEO. BROADHURST

Prices 50 Cents to $1.50

SEATS READY TOMORROW

MINNESOTA AND THE NORTHWEST

TWO DISAPPEAR; MURDER FEARED

ONE OF MISSING MEN HAD LARGE ROLL

NO TRACE OF WHEREABOUTS

Police at Bemidji, Minn., Are Unable to Locate Men—Two Left Together—Foul Play Feared

BEMIDJI, Minn., Nov. 29.—Michael O'Connell, engineer of the hoisting engine on the Red Lake railway, disappeared the night of Nov. 9, and no trace of his whereabouts since that time has been secured.

O'Connell was stopping at the West hotel with a man named Davis, who was fireman on the hoisting engine. On the evening of Nov. 9 O'Connell left the hotel with the intention of going to the roundhouse of the Red Lake Railway company, for the purpose of securing a wrench with which to fix the water pipes in the kitchen in the West hotel. He did not return that night, and in fact never has reappeared at the hotel.

It is said that Davis also disappeared the same night and since has not been seen.

The city police say it was known that Davis had some checks and considerable other money about his person the night he left the hotel. Whether he met with foul play or has simply gone somewhere and soon will return is a matter of conjecture. The police are making diligent inquiries to find some trace of O'Connell. O'Connell is about thirty-five years old, five feet and ten inches tall and weighs about 175 pounds.

JURY SAYS MURDER;
PRISONER CONFESSES

EVELYTH, Minn., Nov. 29.—That George Grubosich was killed by a shot fired from a revolver in the hands of Eli Metrasovich was the finding of the coroner's jury. The jury was told by the interpreter that Metrasovich admitted killing the man.

All the witnesses were agreed that Metrasovich was drunk. Metrasovich thought the hearing before Judge Prince was his trial, and Monday morning when the judge saw him as Sheriff Bates was taking him away he asked how long he was to be imprisoned.

MICHIGAN HAS HEAVY SNOW.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Nov. 29.—Winter today enveloped copperdom, fully four inches of snow having fallen since morning. Incoming trains tonight are delayed and street railway traffic is interrupted.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLS HIMSELF

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., Nov. 29.—Klemonts Noviskis, a woodsman employed by the A. Bowman Lumber company, accidentally shot and killed himself. While he was walking through the woods his gun accidentally went off as it struck a log.

NORTHWEST BRIEFS

BARNESVILLE, Minn.—Halvor Rakerud, Lars and Gilbert Anderson, three prominent farmers of Tansem, will leave this week for Norway to spend the holidays. They will return in the spring.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D.—The deadly "cornstalk disease" is causing heavy losses to the farmers residing in the eastern part of this (Minnehaha) county. One farmer residing near Valley Springs thus far has lost ten head of cattle and others have lost from three to six.

HASTINGS, Minn.—Delaying the arrival of the body of Howard Crosby in this city caused a postponement of the funeral, and the exercises were held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the family residence. Rev. R. L. Lewis officiated, and interment was made at Lakeside cemetery.

DEADWOOD, S. D.—With a corps of assistants, N. B. Switzer, member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, is here in the interest of the interior department of the government for the purpose of examining the recent public land surveys in the Black Hills.

FARIBAULT, Minn.—Scarlet fever is epidemic in this city, and numerous homes are quarantined. Most of the cases are of a light form and no serious results thus far have been experienced. The cases are mostly confined to school children.

MONTICELLO, Minn.—Jim McGee was arrested here and taken to Princeton by the sheriff from that place. He was charged with disposing of mortgaged property. At the preliminary hearing he was bound over to await the spring term of court.

ANOKA, Minn.—A burglar made a desperate attempt to enter Slevy Tronson's home last night by taking off a window screen, and although he had aroused the family, attempted to enter the front door. Mr. Tronson took a poker and went for him, and the man ran away. He wore a black mask below the eyes.

WEBSTER CITY, Ia.—Because Louis Bins of New York, the one witness upon whom the state is relying to prove its alleged charge of embezzlement against George MacKown, wanted to eat Thanksgiving dinner at home instead of coming to Iowa to testify in a matter that has little or no interest for him, the case of the State of Iowa vs. George MacKown has been continued and will not be called until next Monday.

DAKOTA LIQUOR
LAW IS INVALID

CONFLICTS WITH INTER-STATE COMMERCE ACT.

MUST NOT SEIZE WHISKEY

Judge Delivers Opinion Shattering Temperance Statute—Liquor Shipped to State Is Safe.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Nov. 29.—In a decision Judge C. F. Templeton, of the district court, declares the liquor seizure law to be invalid. The decision is made in the case of W. L. Gorton vs. T. E. Metcalf, as police magistrate of the city of Lakota, N. D. The constitutionality of the law authorizing the seizure of liquor imported into the state as a beverage was attacked on several grounds by the attorney for the plaintiff. First it was contended that the statute is unconstitutional because a trial by jury is not permitted under its provisions. The court does not think that this statute conflicts with that section of the constitution which guarantees the right of trial by jury.

The second contention was that the statute contravenes section 18 of the declaration of rights. The court holds this phase of the statute valid. The third contention was that the statute is in conflict with section 112 of the constitution, relating to the jurisdiction of justices. This contention is sustained by the court. The fourth contention is that the statute is void because it violates the commerce clause of the federal constitution. The court holds that this point is well taken.

This is the first time that the new law has been held unconstitutional. In a Bottineau case Judge Templeton, who was presiding for Judge Burr, held that a seizure of liquor made before liquor had been removed from the depot platform to the depot was illegal for the reason that it was subject to interstate commerce until delivered.

At the age of 22, Clarence had good digestion. He had gastric juice that could dissolve doughnuts and turn appleskins into good blood corpuscles.

At the age of 24 he began to be profuse about the waist and lean backwards. He also began to cultivate several chins. In his new-found pride he began to think it his duty to gorge himself on everything, the good and the bad, for appetite feeds on appetite—and every good thing is abused.

A Voice From The Stomach

A Bloodless Fight Between a Tablet and a Habit—The Tablet Wins.

At the age of 22, Clarence had good digestion. He had gastric juice that could dissolve doughnuts and turn appleskins into good blood corpuscles.

At the age of 24 he began to be profuse about the waist and lean backwards. He also began to cultivate several chins. In his new-found pride he began to think it his duty to gorge himself on everything, the good and the bad, for appetite feeds on appetite—and every good thing is abused.

His pictures showed that he took on weight after he put his collar on. At the age of 26 Clarence married and went to boarding. On top of all this, he attended oyster suppers and wine dinners, which reduced the size of his collar from 16½ to 15. With still abiding faith in the strength of his stomach he gulped his meals, and chewed them afterwards.

At the age of 28 Clarence began to hear an inward voice—a warning from the stomach. After each meal, he would feel bloated—and belching became a habit.

He began to be a light eater—and a heavy thinker. He tried to think out a cure, for now he would sit down at his meals absolutely disgusted at the thought or sight of anything to eat.

He would sit down at his meals without the trace of an appetite, just because it was time to eat.

He would often feel a gnawing, unsatisfied "still-hungry" feeling in his stomach, even after he was through eating, whether his meal was well cooked or not.

And he suffered a good many other things with his stomach that he could not explain, but that made him grouchy, miserable, out-of-sorts and generally sour on everybody and everything.

Finally he read an account, something like this, about the truly wonderful results obtained from Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in all cases of stomach trouble, dyspepsia, and so on. He bought a 50c box at the drug store, and took the whole box.

When he started, he had little faith—and less appetite. When he finished he had absolute faith—and more appetite, and more good cheer. Things began to taste different and better to him.

Now he has no more dyspepsia, no more indigestion, no more loss of appetite, no more brash, irritation, burning sensation, heartburn, nausea, eructations, bad memory, or loss of vim and vigor.

Remember, one ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest for you 3,000 grains of food, just as it did for Clarence.

This relieves your stomach of the work of digesting until your stomach can get strong and healthy again. Your stomach has been over-worked and abused. It's fagged out. It needs a rest.

Let Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do the work of your stomach. You will be surprised how fine you'll feel after eating, and how lucrally good everything will taste to you.

Heed the call of the stomach now! There's a world of good cheer in one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets,—at any drug store, 50c.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Now That It's All Over

Let's get down to business—the CLOTHING business of course.

"Kaufman Pre-Shrunk Garments", in the better grades, will not disappoint—They are Clothes you should know and wear.

Our medium priced Suits and Overcoats are those of quality and style and we want you to see them at once.

High time for a Fur Coat, too, we've a variety of skins—also a good line of Fur Lined Coats.

Everything that is new and proper in Furnishing Goods is here for you.

By the way, we have a quantity of Sanitary Fleece Lined Underwear at the special price per garment of 39c

BETTER GET IN ON THIS

M. & C. NEWBURG

COR. THIRD AND PEARL

DEER KICKSK HUNTER

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., Nov. 29.

Richard Hartwig of Hermansville, a member of a trio of hunters from that town, composed of himself, Joseph Aiken and Charles Ahlers, is perhaps the first peninsula man to get kicked in the face by a deer and then allow the animal to escape.

Wednesday last, after scaring up a couple of rabbits near the camp where he was hunting, Hartwig becoming tired of the strenuous monotony, entered a thick clump of bushes and sat down, endeavoring to wait until a deer came along to be shot.

While he was partly in a doze, the object of his wait crashed through the bushes, planted one of his hoofs almost full on the hunter's face and then dashed away. Hartwig claims he was up in an instant and attempted to draw a bead on the deer, which had dashed into the woods.

NEGROES IN FIGHT;
WHITE MAN KILLED

SUPERIOR, Wis., Nov. 29.—Albert Neumann, a driver of a brewery wagon, was mortally wounded as a result of a shooting scrape between two colored men in a saloon. Neumann went into the place to deliver a case of beer and while he was there the shooting occurred and he was hit in the back, his spinal column being cut. William Winlock and William Harris, two Milwaukee negroes, were the principals. Last night Neumann identified Winlock as the man who did the shooting. Neumann, himself, will probably die very soon, the doctors having given up all hopes. Winlock was caught by the police some blocks from the scene of the shooting after he had fired several shots at him to halt him. Harris gave himself up.

ROSE TO RUN FOR MILWAUKEE MAYOR

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 29.

Ex-Mayor Rose will run for the democratic nomination for mayor in the spring if the people indicate that they desire him to do so, but in a statement issued today he says it is much too early to make an announcement.

"It seems to me that it is entirely too early to make announcements of candidacy for municipal offices for the next spring election," said the ex-mayor. "Four full months will intervene and in that time there may be radical changes in conditions. For myself I have no announcement to make at this time, excepting to say that if it is apparent to me that my candidacy for the office of mayor is desired, I shall become a candidate, otherwise not."

DON CAMERON IS NOW IN DEMAND

LANKY FIRST BASEMAN GOES TO INDIANAPOLIS.

DOUBT HAS BEEN SETTLED

Terre Haute Management Announces
Its Decision With Reservation,
He May be Returned.

Don Cameron, the rival of tall Eddie Konetchy for local baseball honors, is in big demand for next season just now. Another club, Memphis, in the Southern league, is after the tall and lanky first baseman, who played the initial season and managed the Terre Haute, Ind., team in the Central league last season, says the Sporting News.

Terre Haute has settled all doubt concerning the team on which Cameron will play next season, by announcing that the first baseman has been drafted by Indianapolis, in the American association, in the event of his not making good in this class, will be returned to Terre Haute.

President Smith says that if Terre Haute was selling Cameron, more than the $750 draft price would be asked for him. If he does not make good with Indianapolis in the spring he will be returned to Terre Haute. He is now in Memphis visiting his brother.

Cameron is six feet three inches and weighs 200 pounds. When he came to Terre Haute well along in the season from Springfield, of the Three I league, he was thought to be a green player, but he was soon regarded as a star. He played 106 games with Terre Haute, and had a batting average of .309. The only player who stopped him in the league was Shortstop Osteen, of Springfield, who in 128 games, had .333. In fielding not more than three first basemen had better averages and none was more effective.

Cameron lacks only one inch of being as tall as Manager Carr. Cameron did not wish to return to Terre Haute. He closed the season in disfavor there because of a fight at Springfield and although he was acting manager he did not return to Terre Haute at the end of the playing season. He said then that he would not play ball next year. His father has large business interests at La Crosse, Wis., and the son had prepared himself to look after the legal end of the business.

HURRIES ITS TRACK.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., Nov. 29.—The Wisconsin Central track layers are now forging ahead at the rate of two miles a day between Ladysmith and Superior. Where the Central crosses the Radisson branch of the Omaha the former will pass under the latter. The track is being laid to the west of the center of the right of way, and all stations are to be built on the west side of the track. Ladysmith being an exception. Long sidetracks are being put in every few miles. The C. V. & N. have a small steam shovel at work at Exeland grading for a sidetrack to connect with the Central, to enable the Arpa Lumber company to get their logs to Atlanta from farther north.

Read Tribune want ads.

WE SELL

GROCERIES

and nothing else. If you don't believe it, try us once or twice.

J. B. MURRAY'S

Old Phone 6423
New Phone 224

1001 La Crosse St.

READ THE TRIBUNE
WANT ADS.

CATARRH BLOOD UNHEALTHY SYSTEM DERANGED

The entire inner portion of the body is covered with mucous membrane; this membranous tissue is abundantly supplied with blood vessels, veins, arteries, and capillaries. Each of these is constantly supplying to this tissue or lining, blood to nourish and strengthen it and keep the system healthy. When the blood becomes infected with catarrhal matter it is not able to furnish the required amount of healthful properties, but feeds the parts with impurities which disease the membranes and tissues so that they become irritated and inflamed, and Catarrh, with all its disagreeable and dangerous symptoms, is established in the system. There is a constant ringing in the ears, a thin, watery discharge from the nostrils, the breath has an offensive odor, slight fever often accompanies the disease, and gradually the entire health becomes affected and the system upset and deranged. In its early stages, when Catarrh is confined to the nose and throat, sprays, washes, inhalations, etc., are soothing and in a way beneficial, because they are cleanly and usually antiseptic, but such treatment has no curative effect because it does not reach the blood. To cure Catarrh the blood must be purified, and this is just what S. S. S. does. It goes down into the circulation and attacks the disease at its foundation; it removes the cause and makes the blood pure and healthy. Then the blood vessels are filled with fresh, reinvigorated blood, which is carried to all the mucous surfaces and linings, the inflammation and irritation are corrected, the symptoms all disappear, the health is improved and Catarrh is permanently cured. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who write.

S.S.S.
PURELY VEGETABLE

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

WISCONSIN NEWS

FLAMES ATTACK WYOCENA ASYLUM

PATIENTS RUSH MADLY TO PLACES OF SAFETY.

VILLAGERS SAVE BUILDING SEVEN FOR LIFE SENTENCE

Bucket Brigade Under Leadership of Superintendent of Institution Loss Is About $2,800

PORTAGE, Wis., Nov. 29.—Just as they were about to be seated for their Thanksgiving dinner, the inmates of the county insane asylum at Wyocena were startled by an alarm of fire which came from the kitchen of the institution. With a few exceptions the patients became greatly excited, rushing to doors and windows in an attempt to get out of the way of any possible danger.

Frantic stricken they rushed about not heeding the assurances of the guards who protested that there was not the least possibility of danger. Superintendent Miller himself took charge of the situation, and after some time, though not without adopting some stringent means, succeeded in pacifying his wards.

In the meantime a bucket brigade, composed of villagers, had come to the assistance of the endangered institution. Aid was also summoned from Portage. Here a special train was readily made up on which the apparatus was to be taken to Wyocena. As the train was about to start, word came from the asylum that the fire had been put under control.

The flames by the heroic work of the villagers, had been confined to the building in which the fire originated, though several times others had been threatened. The loss is estimated at $2,800.

Nell—"That girl is so full of airs as to be positively tiresome." Belle—"Yes, she reminds me of an over-worked phonograph."

The woman who never gets to church can't expect to keep up with all the neighborhood gossip.

DILLON IS FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER

PUNISHMENT FOURTEEN TO TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

Prisoner Still Protests Shooting Was Accidental — Second Degree Returned by Twelve Men

RACINE, Wis., Nov. 29.—William Dillon, accused of killing Jacob C. Best, Jr., of Milwaukee in the Dillon saloon on March 27, was found guilty yesterday of murder in the second degree by a jury in the circuit court.

Seven or eight of the jurors from the first were for a verdict of murder in the first degree, with life penalty, and it was only after many ballots that a compromise verdict was reached.

When the verdict was read the district attorney moved for judgment and sentence, but sentence was reserved until a motion for a new trial could be made. Notice of such motion was made before Judge Belden today, but arguments will not be made until the early part of next week.

Penalty 14 to 25 Years in Prison.

The sentence for second degree murder is not more than twenty-five years nor less than fourteen years. The jury on agreeing on a verdict was taken to the Hotel Racine and retired shortly before 4 o'clock, and at 7:30 o'clock again appeared in court. Judge Belden and attorneys for the prosecution and defense arrived shortly before 8 o'clock, when the sealed verdict was opened and read.

Dillon Turns Pale. All color disappeared from Dillon's face, but otherwise he showed no emotion and was soon taken to jail and the jury was discharged.

In jail Dillon stated that he never believed the jury would find him guilty of murder, and thought the verdict unjust, and said: "If I am sentenced to a term in the state's prison I shall serve it fearlessly."

knowing that I am not guilty as the twelve men have decided." Killed in Dillon's Saloon March 27. William Dillon shot Jacob C. Best in his (Dillon's) saloon the evening of March 27, 1907, following an altercation over the collection of a bill Dillon owed the Jacob C. Best company of Milwaukee. When arrested and taken before Best, then in a dying condition, Dillon denied that he had ever seen Best or had shot him. At the opening of the trial Dillon claimed accidental shooting, the revolver he had in his hand, exploding, he said, when Best kicked him in the left groin.

Dillon is 38 years of age and married. He served in the First Wisconsin regiment in 1898 and has been a well known member of the Eagles and Red Men. He has many friends in Racine.

WOMAN'S VICTIM DIES; SHE REMAINS FREE

JANESVILLE, Wis., Nov. 28.—George Schumacher died yesterday from bullet wounds inflicted by Miss Florence Dugan last April as the result of a love quarrel.

His death recalls one of the most sensational tragedies ever enacted in southern Wisconsin. Miss Dugan is now a free woman. She was acquitted of the charge of assault with intent to kill by a jury in circuit court in October. The defense of emotional insanity set up by the woman, was successful. It was regarded as another approval of the unwritten law.

Schumacher was met on the main street of this city by Miss Dugan while in the company of another woman. Miss Dugan drew a revolver and shot him twice in the back. Schumacher hovered between life and death for weeks. He appeared at the trial in a wheeled chair, unable to walk and hardly able to move. There was some hope for his ultimate recovery, but gangrene had set in and his system was being eaten away.

Early today Schumacher failed rapidly. At noon he rallied but later he died.

"I forgive George," said Miss Dugan when the jury brought in its verdict after the trial, "but I'll never forget."

The case is unique as it brings up the question of whether or not a person who has been acquitted of a minor charge while the victim lives can be held on the more grave charge of murder after he passes away.

SHOOTS WOMAN TWICE WITH A SHOT GUN

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 29.—Mrs. Minnie Vollmer, aged 47 years, housekeeper at the home of Gustav Wiese, was shot and probably fatally wounded by Edward Wiese, aged 27 years, son of her employer. Wiese is in jail. Mrs. Vollmer is in a serious condition.

No cause can be assigned for the shooting. Mrs. Vollmer was standing near a stove in the kitchen of the Wiese home preparing supper, when Wiese entered the house. A brother, Gustav Wiese, Jr., was seated in an adjoining room, near a table, talking with Mrs. Vollmer.

Wiese sat down at the table and picked up a book. A few moments later he went to another room and came back with his shotgun and two shells. The younger brother scented trouble, and told Wiese to put the gun away.

Without speaking he broke the gun and slipped the shells into the chambers. Then, raising the gun to his shoulder, he fired at the woman. Mrs. Vollmer was struck in the left elbow and ran to the door blood dripping from the wound.

Wiese fired the second barrel, the shot taking effect in Mrs. Vollmer's right hip as she ran.

TWELVE YEAR OLD BOY IS PREACHER

WAUPACA, Wis., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Waupaca's famous boy preacher, Arthur Velle, is planning a campaign of revivals in Wisconsin cities. The boy is 12 years old, but

The Figure

How Too Much Fat May Be Safely Reduced at Home

"Oh, that this too, too solid flesh would melt!" cry the ladies nowadays as they try to skulk into a princess frock. How much would the too generously proportioned dame not give up for four inches less in the waistline as she compares herself with the more fortunate one hundred and twenty-five pound sister. Various devices are suggested to arrest the flesh producing tendency and keep the figure trim, including exercising, walking and dieting as well as numerous patented remedies, but there are objections to all of these. Exercising is hard work and takes up precious time; dieting is distasteful and a real punishment, and most of the patent remedies are dangerous to health.

The very best thing for the overweight, whether male or female, is a simple receipt: ¼ oz. Marmola, ½ oz. Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, 3½ oz. Syrup Simplex, which can be obtained of any druggist at small cost. This should be taken a teaspoonful at a time after meals and at bedtime, and results will be both speedy and certain. This is a harmless mixture that cannot bring on any stomach troubles nor cause the dried-up wrinkled appearance of those who starve or take "patent reducers" to get thin. On the contrary, although it often takes the fat off at the rate of a pound a day, it is really very beneficial to the system, cleansing the blood and causing the complexion to become fair and beautiful. The cost of the three ingredients is a mere bagatelle, and one may, if they prefer, get them separately and mix them together at home.

A SERIOUS PROBLEM

How Much Thought are YOU Giving to the Question of Xmas Giving this Year?

Do you find that to give to all the relatives and friends, that you would like to remember, will far exceed the amount of money laid away for this purpose?

THE SOLUTION:

The wise ones are selecting their Xmas wants now; making a small deposit, and having them laid away for future delivery. After that a small payment each week or month, according to your income, settles the vexatious question.

EASY, ISN'T IT?

PRESENTS HERE FOR THE WHOLE

Art Squares
Iron Beds
Wood Beds
Brass Beds
Buffets
Book Cases
Commodore
Couches
Chairs
Chiffoniers
China Closets
Music Cabinets
Kitchen Cabinets

Parlor Cabinets
Clocks
Curtains
Couch Covers
Cots and Cribs
Desks
Dressers
Divans
Davenport
Sanitary Couches Go Carts
Hall Trees
Hammocks

Lamps Mattresses
Mirrors
Pillows
Portiers
Pedestals
Jardinier Stands
Rugs
Refrigerators
Quilts Springs Sideboards
Heaters

Ranges
Parlor Suits
Sweepers
Silverware Dining Tables
Library Tables
Center Tables
Washers
Wringers
Pianos
Rockers
Morris Chairs
Hall Seats
Mission Furniture

WOODWARD SUPPLY CO.

511-513 MAIN STREET

he has been preaching the gospel for three years. Arthur quotes scripture like an old-time parson, and his sermons are delivered in excellent language. He is regarded as a phenomenon in the east. Mr. Velle, Sr., was an ordained Christian pastor in the south for several years, and is now helping his son in his cherished work for the missions.

THIEF STEALS COAT OF STRICKEN PASTOR

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 29.—The Rev. F. E. Alleyne of Madison, Wis., was stricken suddenly ill on the street yesterday and while he lay prostrate on the sidewalk of a little traveled thoroughfare, a thief took his overcoat from him and ran. The minister's outcry attracted a policeman and the thief was caught. Mr. Alleyne was taken to a hospital, where it is not thought his illness is serious.

STOP SUNDAY POOL

RACINE, Wis., Nov. 29.—By order of Mayor A. J. Horlick the police department has served notice on every saloon keeper in the city where pool and billiard tables are in operation, that there must be no more playing on Sunday. A similar notice was served on all billiard halls and bowling alley proprietors. With the curtains and blinds closely drawn, and billiard and pool playing and bowling cut out, the saloons will be practically closed. But it is understood that doors are open and entrance is possible.

STATE GETS CURIOS.

NEENAH, Wis., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Arthur Tessendorf, a paper mill machine tender who resigned to go east, may present his valuable collection of curios to the state museum. Mr. Tessendorf has a number of sheepskins, or parchment, scrolls, bearing dates from 1207 to 1807. They are sealed with odd designs, indicating English court custom. In his work in paper mills, he has found many odd things in the waste paper that is re-made in the Fox river valley.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

PLYMOUTH.—The State Bank of Plymouth will have passed the thirty-fourth year of its existence Dec. 1. It has grown steadily until now the footings of its business have passed the $1,000,000 mark.

APPLETON.—A young man whose name can not be learned was almost smothered to death when fire broke out in the cottage belonging to Mrs. Henry Schmitz, Kaukauna, and the fact that the wind blew open the rear door is probably all that saved the man's life. The occupant of the cottage had just moved into Kaukauna last week and his wife and family had not yet arrived.

APPLETON.—Weary of a life that promised as little in the future as in the past, Joseph Meislin, proprietor of the Manitowish house, blew out his brains with a shotgun.

BELOIT.—James Edwards and John Leary, two Milwaukee youths, have been sent to the county jail at Janesville to serve a thirty day sentence for stealing ninety-two beer bottles from the rear of the Schlenk brewery.

DELAVER.—Miss Laura F. Angell, now of River Falls, Wis., has been elected librarian of the Aram public library, and will enter upon the duties of the position the last of January.

EAU CLAIRE.—The police unearthed the records of a gang of young men of this city who have been doing some Jesse James stunts, making their headquarters in a cabin, half of which had been dug out of the cliff. Boards for building the cabin had been stolen from a neighboring box factory. The young men who held forth in the place pleaded guilty. They are Vincent Thomas, Fred Mulligan, William Wagner, Edward Krantselder, and Joe Kenninski, and range in age from 17 to 21 years. They have fines of $6.40 each and their combination cabin and dugout was burned at the order of Chief of Police O'Brien.

GRAND RAPIDS.—Owen Laughlin, night watchman at the Biron mill of the Grand Rapids Pulp and Paper company, was drowned while making his rounds.

KENOSHA.—The Simmons Manufacturing company has taken steps to secure perfect protection of the big plant against loss by fire by the installation of a complete fire alarm system and a paid fire department. The Simmons company is the first factory in the city to install a regular department, and the experiment is being watched with interest.

MARINETTE.—Capt. John Martin, whose tugs, the Evans and Williams, were seized for claims, says he has a good claim against the United States government which he will push for reimbursement for the wreck of the Evans. He says he will present a claim against the government for $36,000, claiming that he was offered $18,000 for the tug, and that he is entitled to as much more for loss of time for the tug and for injury to his business caused by the illegal seizure.

SHEBOYGAN.—August Strassburg

JUDGE OLIN WELLBORN.

If Judge Landis had not set such a fearful race in the $29,000,000 Standard Oil fine last summer the judgment which Judge Olin Wellborn has just handed down in the United States district court at Los Angeles, Cal., against the Santa Fe railway would be considered stupendous and epoch making. Judge Wellborn has fined the Santa Fe $330,000 for rebating. The company was convicted on 66 counts of granting rebates to the Grand Canyon Lime and Cement company on shipments of freight from Nelson, Ariz., to Los Angeles. The fine is $5,000 on each of the 66 counts.

was badly injured by being thrown off his wagon in the Phoenix Chair company's lumber yard. The horses shied and attempted to run away. Mr. Strassburg was in bed for three weeks last spring as a result of injuries which he received by a horse kicking him.

STURGEON BAY.—Bernard Hahn, a business man of this city, was bound over to answer to the charge of arson. Hahn was arrested on a warrant sworn out by James M. Sexton, assistant state fire marshal. He owns the opera hall and other property in this city and vicinity.

SHEBOYGAN.—George Schendler, aged 54 years, committed suicide by taking a dose of paris green.

THE SPIRIT OF THE SOUTH. The southern people welcome cap-

BATAVIAN NATIONAL BANK

LA CROSSE, WISCONSIN.

With Capital Surplus and Stockholders' Liability of $900,000

Is one of the strongest financial institutions in Wisconsin. In business since 1862, passed through the panics of 1873 and 1893 and stronger today than ever.

All loans of this bank are approved by our discount committee, consisting of E. E. Bentley, F. A. Copeland, L. F. Easton, A. Hirschheimer and E. M. Wing.

OUR DIRECTORS:

E. E. Bentley. L. F. Easton. J. J. Hogan.
A. Hirschheimer. E. T. Mueller. M. Funk.
F. A. Copeland. B. C. Smith. G. Van Steenwyk

EXPERT WORK

and moderate charges have gained for us a long list of loyal patrons. All Branches of Painless Dentistry. Crowns, Bridge Work, Plates, etc. Your teeth should be examined by a thoroughly conscientious dentist every few months.

DR. WATTERSON
THE PAINLESS DENTIST.

115 S. Fourth St., La Crosse, Wis.

DOERFLINGER'S

SATURDAY PURE GROCERY OFFERS

SUGAR Best granulated cane Saturday with 50c order of 10 Pounds for 47c canned goods.....

FELS-NAPHTHA SOAP, 6 BARS FOR 25c

Butter—Swift's Jersey, Saturday priced at the pound.....	16c
Butter—Best Creamery Butter, Saturday at the pound only.....	30c
Crackers—Strictly fresh Soda, Saturday at the pound only.....	6c
Potato Chips—Meyer's strictly fresh, priced at the pound.....	20c
Cranberries—Fancy Cape Cod, priced at the pound only.....	11c
Lettuce—Fancy leaf lettuce, 3 bunches for.....	10c
Raisins—Fancy loose Muscatel, priced at the pound.....	10c
Currents—Fancy bulk Currents, priced at the pound.....	10c
Fish Bails—Stavenger brand 2 ration cans priced at the can only.....	15c
Peas—Park brand Early June Saturday priced at the can.....	9c
Corn—Regal brand sweet corn, Saturday at the can only.....	7c
Wax Beans—C. & L. fancy cut wax beans, Saturday at the can only.....	10c
Walnuts—Fancy shelled, Saturday at the pound.....	40c
Almonds—Fancy Jordan Almonds, Saturday at the pound.....	58c
Mince Meat—Condensed, 3 regular 10c packages Saturday for only.....	23c
Olives—Extra fancy large Queen Olives, Saturday at the quart.....	45c

PORTUGAL SCENE OF POLITICAL CRISIS

(Continued from page one.)

ported across to Brazil. The scenes at the palace and wharves were one of chaos and confusion. Wives were separated from their husbands. Silverware, famous paintings, clothing, all lay exposed to the cold rain on the wharves.

"On November 29, 1807," says Napier, "they (the ships) left the harbor in a gale of wind under the command of Sir Sydney Smyth and with the royal salute from the British squadron."

Shows Debased Condition. Thus the day closed and Spain was now supreme in Portugal.

There is but one explanation for this unneeded and unprecedented retreat. The absolutely debased condition of the people in power. Napoleon had demanded that Portugal take sides either for or against him and they had remained with England. He dispatched general Junot across the Pyrenees with a small body of vanished in the distant horizon when Junot made his appearance. He entered Lisbon with 1,500 grenadiers. A population of 200,000 raised not a hand in resistance. Thus Portugal strangely passed like a dream from the control of England into the hands of Napoleon.

The history of Portugal is one of continual revolt, intrigue and revolution. With few exceptions the rulers have been weak. Compulsory education, while required by law, is seldom enforced, and this is one of the factors that today makes Portugal years behind its neighboring countries.

Power in Discovery.

Portugal originally gained its power by its adventurous spirit of discovery. Almost surrounded as they are by the ocean it is little wonder that like the Norsemen of the north they were in advance of other countries in the adventures of discovery. Their possessions today include colonies in Asia and especially the Indian archipelago. It is estimated they have 9,000,000 subjects in these Asiatic colonies. In Africa, the colony of Cape Verde, St. Thomas and Princesa Island, Bissagos, Guinea and Portuguese East Africa, represent an area of 820,686 square miles and a population of over 4,000,000 people. The race is mixed. Galician blood predominates in the north, Jewish and Arabic in the center, and African in the south.

Contrary to general belief the Portuguese differ essentially from their Spanish brethren whom they regard with inveterate hatred and jealousy.

News Is Cut Off.

MADRID, Spain, Nov. 29.—It is very difficult to get accurate reports of the Portuguese trouble through from Lisbon, because all the wires are tied up as well as the mails with a strict governmental censorship. Many of the yarns are greatly exaggerated, but it is known authoritatively that the situation in which Don Carlos finds himself is serious. A revolt seems imminent and it would not surprise Spain if a Portuguese republic were the outcome.

The Queen Is Silent.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Queen Amelia of Portugal is in London. She has nothing to say regarding the difficulties of her royal sire. The queen is an extremely popular and beautiful woman.

King Must Give Way.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—A member of the Portuguese ministry in Paris says that this time the people of Portugal will not be denied. He declares that unless the king acquiesces in prevailing demands, a rebellion and a republic may result.

ELKS' MEMORIAL SERVICE SUNDAY

Programs have been mailed to members of the B. P. O. Elks lodge here for the annual memorial services which will be held in Congregational church Sunday, Dec. 1st, at 2 p. m. The general public is invited to witness the ceremonies, and it is expected the church will be filled. Past Ealted Ruler Nash of St. Paul lodge of Elks will deliver the eulogistic oration.

LUIZ PHILIPPE, HEIR APPARENT TO THE PORTUGUESE THRONE.

men. They advanced rapidly. The people, sunk in the lethargy of debasement, gazed upon the march of these French columns with unconcern. They were too deeply debased to cherish any noble aspirations for liberty.

The council at Lisbon was divided, some adhering to England and others favored joining the "Continental Alliance." A third body finally persuaded them to abandon Portugal and retreat across the Atlantic to their much larger possession of Brazil. This plan was decided upon only two days before Junot arrived and so necessitated the hurried departure. Scarcely had the receding sails

DON'TS THAT MAKE FOR GOOD SCHOOLS

STATE SUPERINTENDENT CARY GIVES LIST OF THEM.

FIFTY THINGS NOT TO DO

Pamphlet Issued to Teachers of State Gives List of Negatives in the Art of Teaching.

Don't talk too much. Don't let your school run away with you. Don't try to drown noise with greater noise. Don't criticize the teacher who preceded you. Don't think when you have told your pupils something, you have taught them something. Don't make spiteful remarks about parents. Don't punish by pulling ears or slapping.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Superintendent C. P. Cary in a pamphlet, exclusively for teachers, on "How to Have a Good School," gives about fifty "don'ts" of which the foregoing are indicative of the trend of the advice which is deemed necessary.

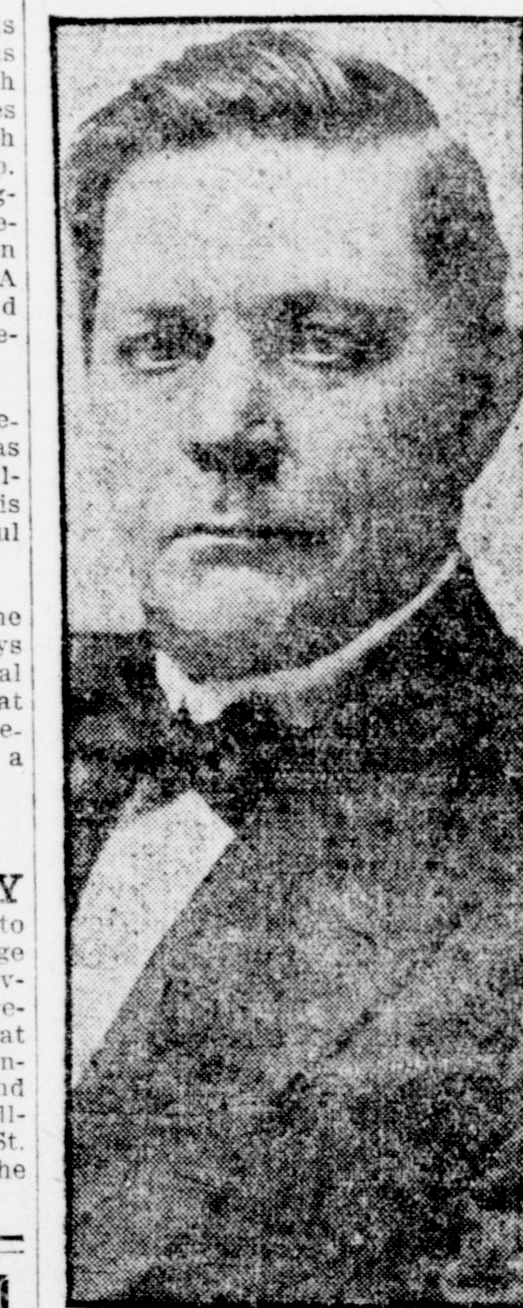

The pamphlet contains about thirty pages of suggestions to the teacher, among other hints, which do not apply to all teachers all the time, "but to some teachers some of the time," are "Wake-up, wash-up, brush-up, brace-up, look-up, work-up and keep up."

"A sleepy teacher needs to wash up," says the pamphlet. "Nothing but a good body bath and vigorous rubbing will bring him out of his stupor and start circulation. The sleepy teacher is sure to be slovenly in person as well as slovenly in his school room and his work. Your clothing as well as your hair needs brushing at least once a day."

Giving too much time to social affairs is given a rap by the superintendent. Too much time should not be given to attending parties; school hours should not be occupied in reading novels, doing fancy work and writing personal letters and teachers should not go "to extremes in the manner of dress and thus create unpleasant comment in the community, in which they teach." These last suggestions are intended to be more personal in character to the teacher than those preceding, according to the state superintendent's pamphlet.

MRS. PFIFFNER DIES YESTERDAY

Mrs. A. Piffner, the widow of the pioneer harness maker of this city, died yesterday morning at her home in Fairmont, Minn., after a brief illness. The body will be brought to this city this evening and funeral services will be held from her late residence here, Sixth and Main streets, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Interment will be made in Oak Grove cemetery.

GOVERNOR HOCH

Governor Hoch of Kansas is slated by his friends to be a candidate for United States senator to succeed Senator Chester I. Long. Governor Hoch is now serving his second term and is known as one of the most spectacular and promising figures in the western political arena. Governor Hoch is in demand constantly by the lecture bureau. He is recognized as the best platform speaker in Kansas and is regarded second only to the late John J. Ingalls in his ability to sway an audience. He came to the governorship from a country printing office. The people of Kansas are overwhelmingly for a state wide primary election next year to name a senator. With a primary law it is believed that the governor can defeat the present Senator Long and W. R. Stubbs, who is also a candidate.

UNION SERVICES ON THANKSGIVING

GERMANS UNITE FOR SERMON BY REV. PANZLAU

REV. ROHRBAUGH'S SERMON

Pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church Delivers Thanksgiving Oration at St. Paul's

German and English Union Thanksgiving services were held in the city yesterday morning. Rev. Panzlaus preaching to the German congregations at the German Baptist church and Rev. D. H. Rohrabach to the English at the St. Paul's Universalist church.

Rev. Panzlaus spoke on the "Men who make our country," and delivered an interesting oration, fitting to the occasion.

Rev. Rohrabach's sermon. Rev. Rohrabach's sermon at St. Paul's was upon "Gratitude and its expression." It was full of wholesome truths and timely sentiments. Rev. Rohrabach's poke as follows in part:

Give thanks unto Jehovah, p. s. 136:1. What shall I render unto Jehovah for all his benefits toward me? P. s. 116:12.

The Psalter has many sad passages and yet it is a book filled with thanksgiving and praise. Though written by many authors, it seems to be the expression of one man's life experiences. He pleads for help against his enemies; rehearses all his sins and longs for holiness; recounts his deliverances; declares the goodness of God, and moving on reaches a point where he becomes enraptured with the spirit of the infinite One. He leaves off saying "thanks" and begins to sing, "Praise Jehovah." Praise ye Jehovah. Praise ye Him ye his angels, Praise him sun, moon and stars; mountains and all hills; cattle and all beasts; Praise him with harp and voice, with hand cymbals, with stringed instruments and organs. Having searched the universe for persons and things, he rises to one grand climax in the exhortation, "Let everything that hath breath praise Jehovah." "It is pleasant and praise is comely."

The Universal Hunger.

There is no man but craves it. No matter how good or great he may be he drinks in honest praise from the poorest and humblest. It is an indication of a true and noble soul. Men feel ingratitude keenly. Hear old King Lear, who has been cast off by his daughters, saying, "How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child." Jesus felt the sting when but one of the ten lepers healed, returned to give glory to God, and also when the multitude followed him for the bread they had received. Witness the lament of Jehovah over Israel in the prophecies of Isa and Hos.

We need to pray, "A thousand blessings, Lord, to us thou dost impart. We ask one blessing more, O Lord, a thankful heart." To expression of gratitude is an acquired disposition. Stonewall Jackson, it is said, never lifted a cup of water to his lips without breathing a prayer of appreciation and gratitude.

He was like the man who finding a fish and a potato on his plate thanked God. He had searched sea and land to supply his meal.

Our Many Blessings.

It is not possible to recount all our blessings, but a few for which we may be grateful are here mentioned. The first is the Amenities of social and home life. These are taken for granted as most of our greatest blessings are. We must think of the wife, the angel of the fireside, who cheers and inspires and loves when no one else can. Thomas Hood said what many a man could truly say, "I never was anything until I knew you." Then don't forget mother.

"God could not be everywhere, so he made mothers." He breathed her life into you. Then there is the hard-working, uncomplaining, self-sacrificing husband. He knows how to bear burdens alone. What would home be without that brave heart. Thank God for him. Thank heaven for the joy, love and rest of home—a haven from storms, a refuge from temptations. Then sorrow and misfortune have their value in character building. They often keep us near the throne of grace. Can you thank Him for these?

Our material prosperity has been phenomenal. The fields have yielded abundant harvests, mill-wheels have turned and labor has found abundant opportunities.

Peace Reigns.

Peace has reigned everywhere. No war clouds fringe our horizon. As optimists who believe this is Christ's world, we must believe it is growing better. Let us note some of the forces which make for righteousness for which we should express our thanks.

Temperance has made great strides. One half the population of the United States is under some form of prohibition, and the saloons are unpopular in much of the other half of the territory.

Not a law favorable to the saloon was passed last year. Lift up your head, your release draws nigh. Our civic forces must be mentioned. We have never had so high a type of lawmaker. They would not, and dare not jeopardize the interest of the people. Today the moral questions are to the front. And our lawmakers meet them. Our statesmen must be not only economists, but also moral philosophers.

Then there is a decided gain in ideal manhood. Manhood is advancing among the higher classes. Good men never lived on a higher plain. The level is high. More for the unfortunate and depraved has never been attempted.

Men Entering Work.

One of the signs of the times is that men seem to be entering into their inheritance. This is evident from the men's missionary conventions and the various brotherhood organizations. One hope is in the men. The church is not losing its power over men. Its power will grow with these men leading on.

Again we must mention the attitude of our great papers. The great magazines ferret out and attack evil in high places. Our religions are the best in the world and are worthy our following. The great dailies seem to know beforehand what men will do, and thwart them, expose them or commend them as is best. Thank God for the high tone of our papers.

"What shall I render unto Jehovah for all his benefits to me?"

The fruit of your lips, the increase of your purse, and the allegiance of your soul. Say no more, I am thankful, but rather "I thank thee."

Angels are descending and ascending upon you. They bring down their bounty, shall they go up empty? Your garners are overflowing, others are empty. It is "help and tuck" with them to get the necessities of life. Perhaps you may hear coming down the ages on the wings of time, "Give ye them to eat." The greatest blessing is to be able to give.

What shall I render unto Jehovah? Give him his own. You belong to God. He wants you. He wants your hands to toil for him, your mind to execute his plans, your heart to sympathize with his people and your soul to enter into his.

LOST HIS APPENDIX.

TMEPLETON, Mass., Nov. 29.—James J. Ransome, who lives in Lamb City, has been so unfortunate as to lose his vermiform appendix, and has advertised for it thus: LOST OR STOLEN—One vermiform appendix; reward upon prompt return to owner and no questions asked. J. J. RANSOME.

It cost him quite a sum to have it removed, and the surgeon did it up in a nice little bottle filled with alcohol.

MOCK MARRIAGE IS FATAL.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 29.—Oespondent, it is said, when she learned she had been made a party to a mock marriage, Miss Osie Pierce committed suicide at Powhattan, O., Wednesday night. The authorities are searching for the man who has disappeared.

Henpecke—"Wigwag and I were rivals for the hand of my wife, but I got her." Bjones—"Lucky devil." Henpecke—"Which one?"

If you want to hear something "on" your enemy, praise him enthusiastically. A compliment will bring out a story on him quicker than abuse.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.

Read Tribune want ads.